

Plainfield singer performs in Montgomery

PHOTO (Top) Plainfield native Eric Chesser and his country-music band performed Wednesday (July 24) at Montgomery Park in the Concerts in the Park series. The free six-concert series, a partnership of Village of Montgomery and Fox Valley Park District, continues with a 7 p.m. concert by Roosevelt-Aurora American Legion Post 84 band Wednesday, July 31, at McCullough Park, 150 W. Illinois Ave., Aurora; and Wild Daisy, at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 11, at Montgomery Park, River Street and Mill Street in Montgomery. Admission and parking are free. Visit wherefunbegins.org for more information. (Al Benson photo)

PHOTO (Bottom): Audience members dance to the music of Eric Chesser, center, and his band Wednesday (July 24) at Montgomery Park in the Concerts in the Park series. Chesser, a Plainfield native, is a popular country-music recording artist. The concert series, a partnership of Village of Montgomery and Fox Valley Park District, continues with a 7 p.m. concert by Roosevelt-Aurora American Legion Post 84 band Wednesday, July 31, at McCullough Park, 150 W. Illinois Ave., Aurora; and Wild Daisy, at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 11, at Montgomery Park, River Street and Mill Street in Montgomery. Admission and parking are free. Visit wherefunbegins.org for more information. (Al Benson photo)

