Dear Brothers in Christ,

Thank you for your recent donation of $400 to Samaritan Ministries mission of providing food, shelter and hope through Christian love.

I was recently speaking to a man named Sydney in the Project Cornerstone program. He had been 18 months into sobriety from drugs and alcohol. I asked him how it was going and he responded there are good days and more difficult days.

Sydney paused, and then said, "But, you know what? I picked up the Bible and I'm reading it a lot." He continued, "The words really hit me hard. It's like a weight off my shoulders and in my heart and I find such peace in the words."

His goal is to now read the Bible in its entirety. I encouraged him to continue to pray for himself within and that he would find strength during those harder days.

This holiday season, I am often reminded of the hardships that our Project Cornerstone Kitchen guests every day that don't have food to eat. The men who are struggling to find a home. The Cornerstone men on their journey to recovery from addiction.

It's with your support that Samaritan Ministries serves these individuals in a place of help and hope. God's plan for each of them is in motion and we are here at Samaritan for a reason. Through our Ministry's work, we can be the
