WEEKLY THOUGHTS 33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME NOVEMBER 15th 2020.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, last weekend we celebrated the Eucharistic Congress the event that culminated the Bicentennial celebrations of our Richmond Diocese 1820 – 2020. The theme for our celebration was Communion and Mission. Our Community of faith, love and hope is nourished by the Eucharist, sent at the end of Mass to make disciples who constitute the Body of Christ of which Christ is the head.

This weekend, we celebrate the 33rd Sunday with the Gospel of the Parable of the Talents; (Mt.25:14-30). The parable focuses on the Second coming of Jesus who will call for every one of his disciples to account for the use of the various individual gifts.

The particular gifts God has given us are meant to be used profitably for the building up of the Body of Christ- the Church. The challenge before us is to be generous with our natural gifts or abilities to help others get to know Jesus, attain joy and live happily.

Let us be ready to take up the risk of putting our talent at work rather than at waste. Let us be generous with our gifts.

I wish to extend and salute all Our Veterans as we celebrated Veterans' Day this week. May God continue to bless you and the Nation as well as the Young who emulate your courage.

Have a great week.

Angel Tree/Holiday Cheer Program

Due to the Covid situation, we will be doing an Angel Tree (Holiday Cheer Program) for EAUS in a different manner this year. Many people are staying home to be safe and doing as little in store shopping as possible. To assist the children in getting Christmas gifts this year, we are giving you as parishioners two options. You can choose to go out and shop as usual, or you can send monetary donations for the children directly to EAUS.

If you are interested in purchasing gifts and do want names provided to you, please let me know how many names you would like. If you could let me know in the next two weeks, I would appreciate it. When they are available, I will obtain them and get them to you. This is usually around the end of November. Please notify me at lilmuia@outlook.com.

If you are interested in sending a donation toward gifts, make check out to EAUS and reference them Children's Holiday Cheer. Make a note that you are from Holy Infant. Send these to EAUS, Children's Holiday Cheer, Attention Rebecca Price, at PO Box 383, Elkton, VA 22827. If you do not specify, the funds will go into their general capital fund and be used for other things. Do not send these donations to the church. Any donations made out to Holy Infant must be recognized as income to the church.

Thank you so much for your participation.
