GOLD KNIGHTS (MIGHTY MITES)

Slayer of the Game: Jeremiah Fatilua

Both sides of the ball were magnificent this week as everyone contributed to the dominant effort against the West San Jose Storm. Your Mitey Mites saw the endzone five times, which came about by superb plays such as a 45 yard reverse run from Tyson Milliken, which was his first time into the endzone this season. The O-line played aggressive and physical making it impossible for the Storm defense to penetrate their line. Our defense shut out their opponent as Jeremiah Fatilua recorded seven tackles, two for a loss, two forced fumbles, and a 40 yard dart to cross into that green endzone.

SILVER KNIGHTS (JR PEE WEES)

Slayer of the Game: Esam Samson

The offense showed up big on Saturday with outstanding effort from not only the starters, but from the second team players as well. Skyden Shugan and Esam Samson scored two offensive TDs against a struggling Storm defense. Noah Taa continued to improve at running back while the second team O-line grows in their blocking skills and all around knowledge of the game. The Silver Knights defense had no problem against West San Jose as they tackled in the backfield, sacked the quarterback, caused several fumbles and on the final play of the game, Samson had an amazing interception with a 90 yard pick-6 TD closing the game 19-0.

WHITE KNIGHTS (PEE WEE)

Slayer of the Game: Joshua Velasco

The Storm was no match for our White Knight offensive tornado. With a whirlwind of long touchdown runs from Elijah Bongbonga and Taashaun Lyons, the two Backs recorded 80 rushing yards with Lyons picking up another 40 rushing on an additional TD on the day. The passing game was not to be ignored either as Jacob Barasi looked to Andre Brackett for our fourth TD. But the game's most unanticipated performance came from kicker Joshua Velasco as he booted a total of three 2-point conversion kicks into the uprights solidifying the 30-0 blowout win over the Storm.

GREEN KNIGHTS (JR MIDGETS)

Slayer of the Game: Isaac Grohman-Lanfranco

"Hardship often prepares ordinary people for an extraordinary destiny." – CS Lewis. With arguably the most important position on the field unable to attend the game, including the back-up absent, our Green Knights relied on their Running Back Gabriel Carrera to step-up and fill in as the starting Center. And if you know football, you know this is not a position you simply, "fill in". Although we fell short of the win, Adolph Sykes continued his offensive power game, picking up numerous rushing yards and came within scoring position several times. The trend of stepping-up was seen throughout the team on Saturday. Isaac Grohman-Lanfranco showed his coaches that in a matter of minutes, he would listen, learn, correct his mistakes and as a result, make a fantastic interception!

BLACK KNIGHTS (MIDGETS)

Slayer of the Game: Alo Mata'u & Okela Turituri

Three wins is officially considered a winning streak for our Black Knights! The veteran players devoured West San Jose's defense by running, passing and kicking 20 points onto the scoreboard. Alo Mata'u bulldozed his way to two TDs, while Jenson Quiro found Jesse Tovar for a beautiful passing TD. Quiro looked to Isaac Gil several times throughout the game as Gil also made an impression on special teams. A remarkable defensive effort by Okela Turituri gave way to several backfield tackles and sacks, allowing only six Storm points.
