

CELEBRITY GUEST LYNETTE ROMERO

Multiple Emmy Award-winning Lynette Romero brings extensive news experience as anchor and reporter to the KTLA 5 Morning News. You can see her early morning live reports every hour during the week and then catch her on the anchor desk every Saturday and Sunday Morning for the KTLA Weekend Morning News.

Lynette came to KTLA in January of 1998 as a general assignment reporter and in her first year at the station, received the prestigious Golden Mike Award from the Radio and Television News Association of Southern California for producing and reporting the KTLA News series "Public Schools: Working the System." From August 2000 to October 2004, Lynette was co-anchor for "KTLA Prime News," where she — along with her news colleagues — received a second Golden Mike for best 60-minute evening newscast. In addition to her 5 Golden Mike Awards, Lynette is a recipient of 5 local Emmy Awards including one for best feature news reporting for her work as a reporter/anchor for the show "Access L.A. - The Latino Experience."
