

light of the gospel ministries

December 2016

Happy Christmas to you all, our dear friends and partners.
May the joy of our Saviour's birth fill your hearts this Christmas season and throughout the whole coming New Year 2017.

Community Outreach Centre

We are so excited to tell you that the laminate flooring has been put down in our main hall for services of our new church building. Now we have started the process to obtain permission for public use. Please, pray for that. Once we receive that permission we will be able to buy chairs and put in the stage. Then we can move in and start our ministry there. We can't wait for that.

Edward & Rachel

We had amazing preaching and prophetic ministry in both locations of our church, by Edward and Rachel Issitt, of 'Your Mission,' from London, in October. We always enjoy friendship with them.

Outreach in schools

Over a period of three days in October God has opened a fantastic door for us to do outreach in schools. Rachel Issitt did six excellent classes of British Culture lessons in three schools in Kraljevo. It was very well received and attended. When Rachel did her lessons in our Lidija's school, the principal was so impressed that she invited the regional Serbian television to film it. They interviewed Rachel and made a report about the lessons, including an interview, that was broadcasted three times a day in their news programs.

Kids Church

At the moment in our Kids Church, we are going through a 12 lesson discipleship course. Every lesson on Saturdays we have over 40 children and they are learning how to be committed followers of Jesus. This Saturday Sara will be teaching the fourth lesson. The whole service for kids is very interesting with lively worship, puppet shows, games and learning Bible verses by heart.

Roy & Heather

In November we had Roy & Heather Harris from Christ Church Doncaster. Both of them ministered and blessed us so much in Kraljevo, Chachak, Uzice and in our Kids Church.

We are friends with them for already 30 years, and that is something wonderful.

Gorgeous ladies

Sara is involved in women's work on a local, national and Balkan level. On our local church level it's going great with our Gorgeous ladies. With two other ladies Sara organized a Serbian national Daughters of the King Conference in Belgrade, in October. It was well attended, great guest speaker from Australia, Ruth Carey, and national speaker Gordana Savic.

We give glory to God for all that He is doing in central Serbia. But, also, this would not be possible without your prayers and your regular support and gifts. So thank you very much for being an integral part and making a big difference in this area of the world. This month we will do a Christmas outreach in five schools. Please, pray for that.

We love you and bless you,

Sasha & Sara
