

The Seventh Annual Conference of the Midwest World History Association features...

...a keynote address by Dr. Erika Lee, Rudolph J. Vecoli Chair in Immigration History and Director of the Immigration History Research Center
of the University of Minnesota, followed by dinner for conference attendees.

...an optional three-hour Archival and Cartographic Seminar with the Immigration History Research Center
Archives and the Borchert Map Library
of the University of Minnesota.

...a special session on Preserving and Presenting Immigrant Histories by local Twin Cities institutions that collect and preserve immigrants' stories and records.

Friday-Saturday,
September 23-24, 2016,
Metropolitan State University,
Saint Paul, MN 55106

For more information and to register for the conference, please go to the MWWHA website: http://mwwha.org/conference-2016.html

The MWWHA conference committee thanks Metropolitan State's Student Life and Leadership Development Office, Student Senate, History Department, College of Liberal Arts (formerly College of Arts and Sciences), Practical Philosophy and Ethics Department, Center for Faculty Development, Provost's Office, and President's Office for co-sponsoring the conference. They also thank Alverno College, the Minnesota History Center, Embassy Suites in Saint Paul, the University of Minnesota's Borchert Map Library and Immigration History Research Center and Archives, Metropolitan State's Publications and News Services and Institute for Community Engagement and Scholarship for the time and resources they are contributing to help make this conference successful.

Metropolitan State University community faculty can earn professional development activity (PDA) hours from the Center for Faculty Development; they can earn 7 hours for attending the conference on Friday and/or 8 hours for attending the conference on Saturday.