Vol. 8 No. 1 ~ Spring 2023

Bound for the VCMEC Museum, this is Fantoche, a vintage custom Hagen-Renaker Zara whose cold-painted finish features the work of three legendary artists: She was repainted by the late Ava Durbin, with facial detailing by Nancy Strowger, and pinto markings by the late Judy Renee Pope.

A Word to the Fore: Getting There!

Here we are at April's end (in the middle of yet another snowstorm here in the Northwoods, hopefully the season's last!) with the Spring 2023 issue, as planned. We're closing in on getting back on our normal publishing schedule after the hiatus that made for a combined Autumn/Winter 2022 issue, and we'll be back on track as of the Summer 2023 issue--watch for it at the end of June!

My gall bladder surgery went well last month--thanks to everyone who wrote with kind words of encouragement and advice! I'm feeling tons better now, and all the more so because we've begun the long-awaited fun of putting up shelves and unpacking the model horses!

There's been a whole lotta squirrelin' going on as we get things laid out and organized, making for some impromptu temporary scenes in the meantime. F'rinstance, there's the charming (?) tableau above, with a quartet of Hagen-Renakers repainted Appaloosa by Kathleen Maestas in the early 1970s--all formerly owned by the late Simone Smiljanic--drawing curious looks from some towering drafters (from left, Stealth Bomber by Tom Bainbridge, Deloyer Daedalus and Deloyer Ganymede, both by Lisa Shepard). Gabby the goat is unimpressed, but wax Bonzo the dog thinks it's pretty neat. We do, too!

This issue, we catch up on documenting vintage customs sold at auction or best offer from last August until now. Hopefully we haven't missed many. In recent weeks a pair of Traditional scale 1990s works by Laurie Jo Jensen brought particularly hefty prices at auction, at $950 and $651. Check 'em out!

Also this issue, there's a fun double dose of Victory Lap goodness! Since we didn't have room last issue for the Victory Lap for the overall champions and reserves in the first leg of the 2022-23 VCMEC Online World Championship show series, those horses have joined the top horses from the second leg in the Victory Lap spotlight this issue. Judge's Choice picks from the first two legs, too! Enjoy!

Something extra-neat to see awaits on page 33: Kelly O'Connor shared two pages from the 1991 MARA-ABC Select Sale, featuring her now-vintage stars Indian Pride and Sunset Romance. What would you give for a time machine?! Thanks so much, Kelly!

Between now and the next "Re-View" at the end of June, I'll be having A Major Birthday, yikes! Time keeps flowing on... good thing this hobby helps keep my mind off it! ;-)

Have a wonderful springtime, all!

-Sparky C.

Double Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions in the series' first two legs (no room to shoehorn in Leg 1's Victory Lap last issue!) were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they wrote!

*THE RAISULI

Arabian stallion CM by Beth Peart (remake) and Nancy Strowger (repaint/thread mane/tail) in 1977

Leg 1: 1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed & Workmanship, and Overall Res. Champion Color

Leg 2: 1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Colleen Headley writes, "Hello all, and thank you once again to the judge who called out *The Raisuli, Sage Wind and Dark Commander der for honors. The boys are full of themselves, as always! This will be short and sweet as packing for a move is happening here and there is a lot of snorting, stomping, tail swishing and refusals to go into boxes any sooner than they have to!! LOL They will be back out of the boxes and in their safe case sooner than they realize but they are entertaining me no end. Truly appreciate their honors received and will see you at the next show. :-)"

AL DHAHAB AL'ASWAD

Arabian stallion CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

Leg 1: 1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig writes, "I am so tickled that ol' Aswad did so well! I honestly still pinch myself every day that he lives with me, he's so stunning in person! Nancy had such a magic way with pigment! And I'm a huge chestnut fan to boot so his more exotic shade of chestnut just trips my trigger in a big way! I love how Nancy wasn't shy about exploring the fuller spectrum of that coat color! Huge thank yous to the judge and to VCMEC for holding this show series! Go Aswad!"

IBN HOTEPI

Arabian stallion CM by Ava Durbin in 1978

Leg 2: 1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

Sue Stahl writes, "He was created by Ava Durbin for the MARA Select Sale of 1977, and I was outbid on him, but I never forgot him. I spotted him at a local live show a decade or so later and snapped him up. He's aged well, and I still love him to death."

BIRCHWOOD GEISHA BOY

Hackney Horse gelding CM by Beth Peart in 1977

Leg 2: 1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship

Beth Peart writes, "Hahahahahahaa. I am going to have to start inventing history on him. I am REALLY happy to have him continue his show career successfully this late in our lives. He is one of my very favourite customs, both then, and now. He debuted at Marney Walerius' Model Horse Congress in 1977, the same year he came into the world. I keep thinking that should re-make him but I'm not sure I could!"

ROCKLEDGE DIAMOND LARK

Appaloosa mare CM by Kathleen Maestas in 1978

Leg 2: 1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Rockledge Diamond Lark is a CM Adios, and was purchased directly from Kathy by the lady I purchased her from. She is still lovely and has her original mohair! Her original owner was not a showing home, just a collector. Her showing debut was with this stable in the 2016 Battle Creek MI first VCMEC live show. She's a grand old lady, and has been and will be well-taken care of while she is here."

MON'NAFA RANI

Arabian mare CM by Sarah Minkiewicz (-Breunig) in the late 1980s

Leg 1 TRIPLE CROWN WINNER!:
1980s Overall Champion Breed, Color, and Workmanship

BROTHER LOVE

Appaloosa stallion CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

Leg 1: 1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Lois Bennington writes, "This little guy just keeps on keeping on. I was thrilled to find that he was 1960s/'70s Reserve Overall Breed Champion behind the great *The Raisuli. Thank you judges for seeing his quality! I am so lucky to own him!"

SAGE WIND

Appaloosa stallion CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

Leg 1: 1960s/'70s Overall Res. Champion Workmanship

See Colleen Headley's comment under Sage Wind's barnmate *The Raisuli on the previous page!

MATAR

Mangalarga Marchador stallion CM by Nancy Strowger in the 1970s

Leg 2: 1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Workmanship

Lois Bennington writes, "I really don't remember the circumstances of owning Matar except that I bought him from Nancy Strowger herself. He sat unappreciated on the shelf for years. The Cheryl Ridge writes, "'You're killing me, Rani!' was my first reaction as I scrolled the pages of the Autumn/Winter 2022 Re-View. I had eagerly awaited the results of the 1st leg of the new VCMEC 2022-23 Online World Championships. And there she was, my little star:

"Overall champion of not just one but THREE divisions: 1980s BREED, COLOR and WORKMANSHIP!

"Knowing the calibre of entries in this show series, it gives me such pride to know Rani still has it. Confirmed by the multiple championships awarded to her and the multiple Victory Laps Rani has made it into! You can read more about Mon'Nafa Rani in various issues of the VCMEC Model Horse Re-View, from the Winter 2017 issue onwards.

"Visit the following link online for access to the many issues of the "Re-View": lots of wonderful content geared to the vintage model enthusiast!

<http://www.vcmec.org/vcmec-model-horse-re-view-issues.html>

~ Thankyou, from Cheryl Ridge, Australia (Mon'Nafa Rani's owner since 1989)"

SWEET JANE

Arabian mare CM by Carol Williams in 1989

Leg 2: 1980s Overall Champion Breed

Laura Doll writes, "I'm excited that my gal did well again! I bought Sweet Jane sight unseen from one of Carol Williams' production sale lists, just based on the description. It was most likely the last or one of the last sales she did of a group of custom models because she was moving on to producing her own sculptures - specifically the QH1 at that time. I have always loved Carol's bays and was thrilled when I got her. A lot of people have asked to buy her over the years, but she is pretty dear to me. She is named for the Velvet Underground song - I love the original recording, plus one of my favorite local bands back in the day did a great cover of it. I've always named a lot of my model horses for bands or songs. When I first began photo showing in the '70s, I remember that there was a shower who had a whole stable of horses named for songs by The Band (The Band's Last Waltz, The Band's Chest Fever, etc.) and I would see them in all of the show results I received in the mail. I wonder if that influenced my proclivity for musical model names!"

ARAHAEEL

Arabian stallion CM by Jason Ross in 1986

Leg 2: 1980s Overall Champion Color and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Lois Bennington writes, "Imagine going to an estate auction and finding a horse so beautiful in a yard filled with tables crowded with model horses! Arahael was in the Kay McCue estate sale. I was lucky enough to win the bid and bring him home. Thank you judges for his wonderful placings."

MATT HOUSTON

Thoroughbred stallion CM by Jamie Coughlin in the 1980s

Leg 2: 1980s Overall Champion Workmanship and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Jamie Coughlin writes, "This was the 2nd model for Matt Houston. The first one was also a show champion but I wasn't quite satisfied with him so I made this one. In his heyday he was an amazing showhorse being Champ or Res. at almost every show. I never showed him in performance except for fantasy racing which doesn't require photos. He was Horse of the Year and Champion older horse in Fantasy Japan Racing. Except for one small filler separation on a forearm he is still live show quality. I keep meaning to fix him but never quite get around to it. I'm so pleased he is still winning!!"

DARK COMMANDER

American Saddlebred stallion CM by Adren King (remake) and Jason Ross (repaint/hair) in 1986

Leg 1: 1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Color

See Colleen Headley's comment under Dark Commander's barnmate *The Raisuli on page 28!

BLESSED WINE

Arabian mare CM by Lesli Kathman in the late 1980s

Leg 1: 1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Beth Rappleyea writes, "I am not her original owner. I got her from a sales post somewhere back in 2013 or 14 I think. I'd seen her in old photo shows and knew she was one of my favorite Lesli's so grabbed her as fast as possible! Lesli did say she was one of the very first to wear the 'Kathman' name after she got married. She does win still pretty much everywhere she goes.

"My only story about her is this. When I was asked to go out and judge performance for the newly re-started Breyer-West in 2017, I was so happy to find out that Sarah Minkiewicz-Bruenig was also going to hold an edition of her 'A Good Vintage' Show as well. So I packed up my vintage little in, yes, a lunchbox! and off I flew. Blessed Wine won her division, and won Reserve Overall Champion, and one other prize that I am forgetting the name of right now. Above is a photo with her two Runequine medallions and the special resin medallion that was the show trophy."

MIGHTY BRIGHT J

Appaloosa stallion CM by Barbara Jones in the 1980s

Leg 2: 1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Amanda Ingram writes, "I am thrilled to hear the news about Mighty Bright J! He's a Stock Horse Stallion painted by one of my favorite artists, Barbara Jones of Rocking J Ranch. I had longed to buy a RRH by Barbara in the '80s and I finally got my chance in 2014. He was second hand by this time and now a 'vintage custom' but is a cherished model in my collection. His name is a nod at the real horses in his pedigree, Mighty Bright and Bright Eyes Brother."

IMA ROCK-A-TEER

Appaloosa gelding CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1993

Leg 1: 1990s Overall Champion Breed and Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Ima Rock-a-teer was purchased directly from Lisa Shepard during a visit in 1993. His show career was brief but he placed well. A moderately simple CM Lady Phase painted a wild spotted chestnut blanket appy. The subtle details on him are what drew me to his purchase. The freckling, lightning marks and overall good looks made him a fun guy to pick up. His name IS based on the movie title 'The Rocketeer.'"

AMANTUS VS

Trakehner stallion CM by Diane Capwell in the early 1990s

Leg 1: 1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Leg 2: Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship

Shannon Rodgers writes, "I am proud and delighted to bring Amantus VS to this side of the pond! I am a huge fan of Diane Capwell's artistry, and this lovely Trakehner displays her signature painterly technique in his shaded bay coat. I fell in love with him in the VCMEC photo shows for his realism. He sports an American Trakehner brand and that 'look of eagles.'"

"Because he shipped to me in the midst of an address change last winter I was careful to plan our connection, and he even ushered in the New Year with me on his own hotel room pillow! Amantus has since settled in with his mares and been successful at several live shows including the VCMEC Live III show. He is a gorgeous hunk that represents the best of vintage customs! Thank you to former owner Sophie Nordstrom for allowing him to join my herd, and to all judges who recognize his stunning qualities."

INDIAN PRIDE

Thoroughbred mare CM by Sarah King in 1991

Leg 2: 1990s Overall Champion Color and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Kelly O'Connor writes, "It's hard to imagine going wrong with a Maureen Love Classic TB and a Sarah King paint job! She was offered in the 1991 MARA-ABC Select Sale, which at the time had a black & white catalog, so the quality of her beautiful rose gray was a delightful surprise. I already owned a Ross rep/haired grey Terrang, Jetan's Glory, and was thrilled to add such a glorious Kelso!"

[Editor's note: Kelly sent copies of the 1991 MARA-ABC sale catalog pages for Indian Pride and another of her stars, Sunset Romance--check 'em out on page 33!]

LE COMTE DE MONTE CRISTO

Belgian stallion CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1995

Leg 1: 1990s Overall Res. Champion Breed, Color, and Workmanship

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Le Comte De Monte Cristo is a drastic CM Breyer Clydesdale Mare! He is another Lisa Shepard marvel! He was previously owned by Robin Clark under his original name of Cinnabar's Conquest, and she acquired him directly from Lisa. He did very well in Robin's stable, and has begun anew in mine.

"He is named after a real Belgian from the 1890s and is an ancestor of Congolaise, a famous Belgian stallion. His name translates from French to the English 'The Count of Monte Cristo,' the book by Alexandre Dumas. I've always enjoyed the book, so naming him after the title character was easy."

RM NUCLEAR WINTER

Shire mare CM by Julie Froelich in 1991

Leg 2: 1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Kirsten Wellman writes, "I don't know a ton about RM Nuclear Winter before she came to live with me. I found her for sale on eBay about 15 years ago. She was created by Julie in 1991 and sold on her sales list at that time. Julie said the feathering on the model came from her dog. A previous owner told me that the model used to stand balanced on her two hooves alone, but someone added the little disks she stands on now at some point. She has been a consistent winner for me even against modern customs, and I feel so lucky to own any Froelich piece, let alone one as well known as RM Nuclear Winter."

SUNSET ROMANCE

Thoroughbred mare CM by Lauren Wesley King (remake) and Sarah King (repaint/hair) in 1991

Leg 2: 1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Kelly O'Connor writes, "What a difference the head and neck remake by Lauren King made to the LB TB, and Sarah King gave her such a lovely chestnut coat and hair. She was sold through the 1991 MARA-ABC Select Sale. Would that I could go back in time and buy the rest of the catalog!"

Judge's Choice!

LEG 1: DARK COMMANDER

American Saddlebred stallion CM by Adren King (remake) and Jason Ross (repaint/hair) in 1986

Judge Corky Visminas writes, "The Little Bits American Saddlebred is a mold that seems to be relatively under-used as remake fodder, and most of the time when you see a remade one, it's still in a gaiting pose. That's part of why Colleen Headley's Dark Commander, remade by Adren King in 1986 with painting and hair by Jason Ross, is so outstanding -- he's standing! He's been expertly put into a show stretch pose, with a prideful and confident cock of his head that's perfect for the breed, and given a realistic contrasty dark bay coat with strategic dapples.

"Another thing that I really like about this model is that, the first time I saw his photo, I had no idea of his scale -- it didn't even occur to me that he was Little Bit-sized. He somehow seems ... larger than that. Does that make any sense? Part of that is certainly Colleen's skill with a camera -- he fills up the frame with his amazing presence to the point where he transcends his small scale! Kudos to both artists and to his owner for a really stunning little horse that makes a big impression!"

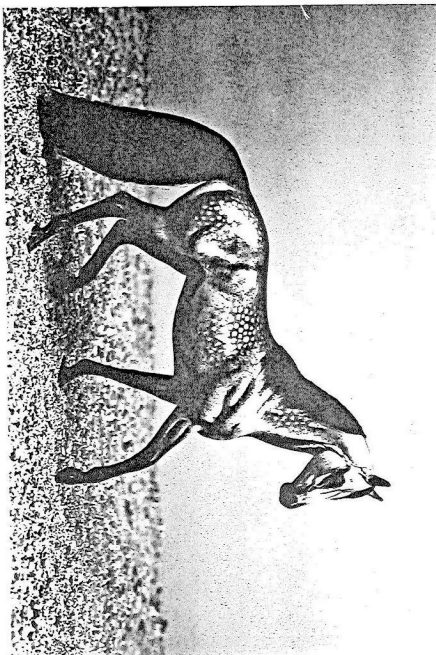

LEG 2: RASTAMAN

Shagya Arabian stallion CM by Beth Peart in 1980

Judge Ardith Carlton writes, "Talk about 'everything everywhere all at once'...! Rastaman, a Shagya Arabian stallion remade from a Breyer Family Arabian Mare (!!) by owner Beth Peart in 1980, is an astonishing piece of work. He's pure charisma, captured in an exquisite instant of action. This dynamic guy covers an eye-opening amount of ground as he catapults forwards, backwards, and sideways.

"The VCMEC Online World Championships' 1980s division is the largest of the show, and in many ways the deepest. Rastaman is always right there knocking! One of the all-time greats."

Thanks to Kelly O'Connor for sharing this blast from the past: the 1991 MARA-ABC Select Sale catalog pages of two VCMEC stars-to-be!

CONSIGNOR'S COMMENTS: "DUNCAN has won many awards, including National Championships, at halter and is perhaps one of the better-known Thoroughbred show stallions in the club. INDIAN PRINCESS has not yet been shown, but she has produced some very good foals-- including race winner ROYAL SAPPHIRE, and a beautiful full sister to INDIAN PRIDE, the rose grey ELORA owned by Nancy Strouger. INDIAN PRIDE has the color, presence, and conformation to shine in halter and performance, and the pedigree to assure success on the racetrack and a career as a broodmare later on. She is truly outstanding."

FUTURITY: halter 1991, 1992, and 1993 paid by seller; will pay for performance nominations if performance photos are done by Alan Ross.

CONSIGNOR'S COMMENTS: "SUNSET ROMANCE is the second beautiful daughter of GENTLEMAN ADMIRER to be presented via Select Sale--COSMOPOLITAN, his first sale representative, has gone on to many National placings in halter and a promising racing career. SUNSET ROMANCE's dam is imported from Ireland; her pedigree features 2 crosses to Northern Dancer (r) and she is the dam of winning racehorses RED OAK, SUN AND MOON, and TWILIGHT MIST. This mare has the potential to do it all--halter, racing, performance showing, perhaps 3-day-eventing or steepchasing in the future. She will be an asset to any strong Thoroughbred program."
