Attention All!

Guild meeting date for July has changed because the church will be closed on Monday, July 5, 2021. We will meet Tuesday July 6, 2021.

This month at the guild meeting we will partake in Community Service. Supplies will be ready for you to sew, iron, and create bibs, receiving blankets, support pillows for folks with breast cancer etc. Not only are we doing something good for the community but it is a great time to get to know one another. The Board will be furnishing refreshments. This is exciting because we have not done this since last February.

Starting in August refreshments will start up again. Please sign up. Becky Bradley is in charge of Hospitality. She will be passing around a sign-up book. Each month about 8 members of the guild sign up to furnish refreshments. - Sandwiches, salads, dessert, drinks. One person on the list takes the lead to make sure all who have signed up know their assignment Tool Time will restart in September. This is a fun way to learn about gadgets you may need. A demo is done and raffles are sold for a giveaway of the tool.

I would like to welcome all new members who have joined the guild. We all look forward to having you and hope you enjoy the fellowship.

I look forward to seeing you guys!

The time is quickly approaching for our fun August workshop with Tana Mueller. The workshop is titled "Coloring With Crayons" and will be held Tuesday, August 3rd, at the Painted Pony in LaPorte. This will be a workshop where you will use crayons to enhance and add depth to your quilts, or whatever fabric creations you choose to use the technique on. And the best part it is beginner friendly. All class materials are furnished and no sewing machines are required. However, a lightbox is needed and if you don't have one, you can rent one from Tana for the nominal fee of $5.00.

We still have a few spots open and the cost is $40.00 for class and $30.00 for kit. My apologies as to the cost increase. Initially I had put down $35.00 but I forgot to add the room use fee of $5.00 which goes to the Painted Pony.

Come join us - this will be a relaxed, learning experience. I think everyone will enjoy this different take on "Coloring With Crayons".

PLEASE BRING A SACK LUNCH AND A DRINK!

When: August 3rd

Thanks to all who brought baby supplies to last month's meeting. The Baytown Pregnancy Crisis Center is very appreciative.

The July meeting is designated to our Community Service projects. Please join us as we work on multiple projects including baby blankets, burp pads and fleece blankets to be distributed to the Pregnancy Crisis Center, Baytown Police Department and Bay Area Homeless shelter and heart pillows for the Cancer Center. If you have spring-loaded scissors, please bring them for cutting the fleece blanket edges.

We also plan to put together a Community Service Project sewing box for use when working on our projects. If you have any extra pins, needles, scissors, rotary cutters, blades or rulers you would like to donate, please bring them to the next meeting.

Minutes of the BAQG May 2021 General Meeting – Kelly Gibson – Secretary

President Janie DeStefano called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm, welcoming members and guests. Bay Area Quilt Guild representatives attended the meeting to display their raffle quilt and sell raffle tickets. The Baytown Area Quilt Guild (Guild) is working on having more of a presence on social media. The Guild's Facebook page will be expanded to include a 'members only' section and a 'resource' page. Jane Ott reviewed upcoming programs. In August the Guild will have a workshop lead by Tana Mueller. See Cindie Stolz to sign up. Cost is $40. Bring a sack lunch. If you have a light box please bring it. Jane Ott discussed the President's Quilt. Packages containing fabric and directions are available at the meeting. Completed blocks should be back by September. See Rhonda to sign up and pick up blocks. Donna Nichols is a new member in the Guild. Be reminded that the Guild needs items for the auction in November. The July meeting is our community service meeting. The Board will provide refreshments. Guild members will be working on burp pads, heart pillows and baby quilts. Jan Cobb advised to bring spring loaded scissors if you have them to make cutting easier. Jan Cobb generously set up a table with some of her fabric for Guild members for their own use or community service project use. Jan Cobb discussed putting together a sewing box for the Guild at large to use when working on community service projects. The box would contain some basic sewing items like pins, scissors, etc. Janie advised that sewing machines will be set up at the July meeting for guild use. Jan Cobb presented the new book in the Guild's library that was donated in memory of Linda Arthur. Gloria Hill presented the Treasurer's report. Janie provided an update on the Guild's donation quilt. Ticket proceeds so far have exceeded $1,000. There was no mini raffle at the meeting. In August the guild will resume having hospitality refreshments at the meeting. Door prizes were awarded at the meeting.

Guild Auction

Annette Kuder

We are excited to announce that we have secured our favorite live auctioneer, Strawberry (Gary) Clifton for the live auction on Monday, November 1, 2021 at 7 PM. He has agreed to help us raise funds to support the guild and the community we serve. Please mark your calendars for a fun evening. We plan to have both a silent auction as well as a live auction.

None of this will be possible without your help whether its donating items to the auction, inviting your family and friends to attend, and you bidding on those items we have that evening. Please contact myself or Connie Schofield if you have anything you would like to donate to the auction. Our goal is to have all of those items collected by September in order to be able to get organized and ready for the event.

Some suggestions include completed quilts, kits, jelly roll rugs, tuffets, sets of quilt blocks, sewing machines, chairs, tables, Quilting Services, Quilt Retreats, etc. If you have any questions regarding items you have for the auction, please do not hesitate to contact us.
