

Busch, Gregory M.

Gregory M. Busch, 44, of Portage, passed away unexpectedly at his home near Kalamazoo as a result of a cancer illness on Wednesday, October 26, 2005. Greg was born in Harbor Beach on January 1, 1961, the son of Fred and Gloria (Essenmacher) Busch. He graduated from Bay City Western High School in 1979. He then graduated from Western Michigan University in 1983, receiving his bachelor's degree for business administration and majoring in accounting. He worked for Lockwood Income Tax Center, where he became a partner in the firm. He was also owner of Profit Control Accounting. Greg was of the Catholic faith. He was an avid Lions fan and enjoyed boating. Surviving are his parents, Fred and Gloria Busch, of Sand Point; his sister, Barbara Wilson, of Jackson; two nephews, Kennedy and Daniel Wilson, both of Jackson; his grandmother, Olive Busch, of Harbor Beach; several aunts, uncles and cousins. He also will be sadly missed by numerous friends and co-workers. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Roman Busch, and his grandparents, Harold and Anna Essenmacher. A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Saturday, November 6, 2005, at Our Lady of Lake Huron Catholic Church in Harbor Beach with Fr. T.J. Fleming presiding. Interment will follow in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 6 p.m. on Friday at the Ramsey Funeral Home in Harbor Beach. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Greg's nephews, Kennedy and Daniel Wilson.
