There are lovely walks in the surrounding hills, especially nice is the walk up to the Cross and the old Fort. You can drive to St. Tropez, or even nicer, take the ferry across from St. Maxime or Port Grimaud. Further away are the cities of Monte Carlo and Nice.
- DIRECTIONS: From Nice Airport - Follow exit signs to A8 Autoroute - direction Cannes, Aix en Provence, Marseilles. You'll need money or credit card for the first toll. Continue on A8 past junction 36 (Vidauban, St. Tropez), in about 10 miles the next junction is marked Toulon, Le Luc, Hyeres A57 and Cannet du Maures. Take this junction and keep right, filter to the right follow signs showing St. Tropez and La Garde Freinet. At the toll follow signs to St. Tropez and La Garde Freinet. (DO NOT get on the Toulon autoroute.) Go around two small roundabouts and follow signs to La Garde Freinet. After about 12 miles of a beautiful but very winding road through cork forests you'll arrive at the village sign, go past a red "Motrio" sign on your right, slow down and take the next turning immediately on your right. It is a sharp right hand turn into a narrow lane you'll find "Residence Indigo" behind two large metal gates, on your left, just a few yards from the main road.

(As you enter the village, turn right just past the Motrio sign on to Chemin des Teilles which isn't marked but a sign to the Skate Park is. This is where you turn sharp right.
