Minnesotan of the Year Nomination Form

The Minnesotan of the Year in the Arts is recognized at the Annual Meeting in May for an outstanding contribution in the fields of Painting, Sculpture, Writing, Music, Theatre, Arts Administration or Arts Philanthropy. The recipient must have made a lasting contribution nationally or internationally in his or her field. The 'arts philanthropy' category includes those who are not necessarily artists, but have made a significant contribution to the arts as a volunteer, philanthropist, or visionary. To nominate an individual, please complete this form and transmit it (via mail or email) to the MTP corporate office at the address noted above.
