He has headlined at the top Cowboy gatherings and played on the soundtracks of Disney Pixar, and Warner Brothers movies.

“Blues on the Trail” celebrates the spirit and the very roots of Western Music. Like the sprawling landscape of the old West, it is diverse, free of fences, and defiant of rules and boundaries. And like the songs of those days it tells captivating heartfelt stories of freedom, adventure, love, beauty, danger, fast horses, ornery mules, trouble and tough luck. Leave the well-trodden path and ride along with Gary and Ian enjoying music that will take you far away on a diverse and intriguing journey.
