

David Michael Frederick, DO

Education

(Medical)
Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine
Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (2012)
East Lansing, MI

Beaumont Health System
Internal Medicine
Allopathic Residency (2012-2015)
Royal Oak, MI

Michigan State University
Physiology (2003)
Bachelor of Science (2003)
East Lansing, MI

Oakland Community College
Emergency Medical Technician (2004)
Auburn Hills, MI

Membership and Honorary/Professional Societies

Sigma Sigma Phi (Member of SSP)
Sigma Sigma Phi National Osteopathic Honor Society

Honors and Awards

Faculty Development course completion in Clinical Teaching as developed by the Stanford Faculty Development Center for Medical Teachers, Resident of the Month, February, 2014

Pharmacology Honors, MSUCOM, Summer, 2009

Dean's List: May, 2002; July, 2003; December, 2004; April, 2008

Research Experience

Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine, Michigan: 10/2008-05/2010

Title: Diagnostician

Director: Dr. Lynn Brumm

Diagnosed somatic dysfunction, treated patients, recorded and entered data as part of an ongoing study looking to evaluate and prevent stress fractures utilizing manipulative medicine

Publications

Oral Presentation

Frederick, D., Swimm, T., Davila, F., (2014). Slow to See the Light: An Eye-Opening Case of Demyelination. Oral Presentation presented at: ACP; Sterling Heights, MI