

Currently pursuing a degree in business management in the Honors College of the University of Alabama, Angela Szasz is one of Music4Romania's founding members. During the past 3 years, she has organized several fundraising events on behalf of Music4Romania and also visited and collaborated multiple times with the organization's partners in Romania.