ATA DELEGATE REPORT

Fellow shooters:

Laramie is again hosting the Wyoming State Shoot. They have made many significant changes to the club grounds during the last 3 years. Upgrading the rv electrical, additional field lighting and adding a new covered shelter. They have planned daily mosquito control, weather permitting. There is $10,000 added to the championship events with each class receiving the same share of the purse. Belt buckles for the Handicap Event on Sunday are in addition to the state and ATA trophies. In short there are a lot of prizes and trophies for all level of shooters to win. The directors and members have put many hours into getting everything ready for this event. Don't miss this great shoot. Shoot well and enjoy.

Sincerely

Phil Kiner
