ZANESVILLE MUSEUM OF ART
MASTER'S APPRENTICE |
FOR CHILDREN IN GRADES 4-6

Become an apprentice to masters like Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, Georgia O'Keeffe, or Mary Cassatt. Each month children in grades four through six will investigate the art, style, and technique used by a different master artist, then they will create their own masterpiece. For each class, participants will earn apprentice rewards to add to their very own artist palette. Fill the palette with colorful rewards to receive unique art supplies and discounts on future programs.

Elizabeth Brandt

Join artist Elizabeth Brant, whose work is on view in Shapeshifter | Sewn Constructions by Elizabeth Brandt and who will make a guest appearance and discuss how fabric is used as an expressive art media. You and Brandt will create your own fabric collage on canvas.

Saturday, July 22, 10:30-11:30 am, at the ZMA. $5 for members,

Zanesville Appalachian Art Project (ZAAP) will be at the Y Bridge Art Festival on August 4-5. The ZAAP booth will feature original miniature art pieces for only $10 and a raffle drawing for a bundle of locally made items. Stop by to chat with members to find out what ZAAP is all about!

ZAAP artists meet on the third Thursday every month at 6 pm at the ZAAP Gallery, 625 Main Street. Become part of the art community in Zanesville!
