HALLO ALLE/HELLO EVERYBODY

NEWSLETTER

By Deb Jackson (who borrowed a memo from John Kneller)

The Newsletter Editor is retiring and moving out of state at the end of this year. Someone needs to step up and take over the privilege of publishing the newsletter. In the meantime, reporting for the newsletter needs to improve:

Event hosts need to provide comprehensive “press releases” on all their events. Do you want flyers made? How can we make flyers if we have no information?

Report on all events in the coming 90 days. Otherwise, how are they timely published in the newsletter?

Some correspondents have been very reliable.

Should have news from every group and every committee in every issue.

How can we get more reliable benevolence reporting?

Read and revise, re-read and re-revise your article before submission.

Repeat yourself only to help readers remember things (dates, times, places).

You report the news. Deb is only the editor and publisher.

If no one reports news—do we not publish? Sounds good to me!

SINGERS

The singers were invited to Historic Zoar to perform during Zoar’s Maifest, May 12. The weather was mostly perfect and the Newark Maennerchor singers were amazing! All Newark Maennerchor members should be very proud of our ambassadors. Photos have been posted on the Newark Maennerchor Face Book page. The acoustics in the old church were perfect. The chorus has already been invited again—and a potential engagement for next year for another festival!

LADIES SECTION

By Suzy Heckmann

Tuesday, June 5 - regular meeting at 6:30 pm at our clubroom - interim president will be Jo Koch

Tuesday, July 3 - there will be NO regular meeting of the Ladies Section because of the 4th of July following the next day

Tuesday, August 7 - regular meeting at 6:30 pm at our clubroom - interim president will be Judi Handel. Discussion of Ox Roast desserts, and asking for callers for dessert donations. Looking forward to a Luau on July 21!

Looks to be an afternoon or early evening event!
