

Nada Yoga & Primal Sound: Sacred Sound & Harmony

May 20-21, 2017

12:00 – 4:00 pm

$40 Registration
$32 Early Bird Registration
(Due May 6)

Nada Yoga is the yoga of sound. Science is proving now what the ancient yogis taught: that the universe is made of vibration, the world is sound!

In this workshop, you will:

- Understand sound as the creative energetic force of material reality •
- Comprehend energy and information that exists outside of the 5 senses •
 - Be inspired to uplift the thoughts you think and the words you speak •
- Learn to listen deeply and experience physical, emotional and psychological harmony •
- Experience the transformative power of sound harmonized with breath and movement •

“Yoga is like music. The rhythm of the body, the melody of the mind and the harmony of the soul creates the symphony of life.” – BKS Iyengar

About your Teacher....

Denise Ngo (Padmasri Durga) RYT 500

Denise is passionate about creating harmony in the world through inspiring transformation of self and others. She began practicing yoga in 2006 and as a classically trained musician immediately saw many parallels between the art, sciences and philosophies of both yoga and music. She has been teaching weekly classes at Yoga Rasa since 2008 and is currently working toward her E-RYT 200 certification. Denise extends deep gratitude and love to her teacher Padma Shakti (Tracie Brace Hatton) for the guidance and teachings she has received. She has also taken workshops and trained with Mahadevi (Sandra Summerfield Kozak), and Swami-ji Dr. Stephen Phillips and also acknowledges the profound influence Dr. Paul Hatton has had in her journey. Denise also enjoys sharing music with children as an elementary music teacher and practicing, performing and spending time with her husband, David. "Only if we are still enough inside, can we become aware that there is a hidden harmony here...a sacredness." - Eckhart Tolle

"That which has created, and which is holding, and in which is held the whole manifestation and the whole cosmos, is one power, and that is vibration." Hazrat Inayat Khan
