Announcements

Robin Cusimano's Mom, Brenda Hood, had surgery last Tuesday. Everything went well and she now at home. Pray for her successful and speedy recovery.

Fran Goode's daughter, Kathy Moore, recently traveled to CO. and has been experiencing health issues suspected to be related to high altitude exposure. She was taken to the hospital on Thursday and released on Friday after getting positive test results. Fran and family appreciate your prayers.

Fran is also requesting prayers for Kathy's Mother-in-Law, Helen Moore. Ms. Moore fell at her assisting living facility on Friday and broke her arm. Surgery is pending, but there are risks due to her age (94) and her ongoing heart problems.

Glory and Grandeur

The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament shows His handiwork.
(Psalm 19:1)

THE VAST RICHES OF GOD'S MAJESTY ARE SIGNIFIED BY EVERY WORK OF HIS CREATION, FROM THE VERY GREAT TO THE EXTREMELY SMALL. There is nothing about the natural environment that God has designed to surround and support us that does not show His greatness — if we have eyes to see and hearts to understand. The more urbanized our culture becomes, the more difficult it is for us to keep in contact with nature. Our automated, technological way of life cuts us off from the primary evidence for God. It is no coincidence that deep faith in the reality of God is more widespread in agrarian communities, where people interact more with the marvelous things that God has made and less with the things of man's making. The farmer who has a chance every morning before the sun comes up to rub his hand gently along the side of his milk cow, feeling her heartbeat, has an eloquent advantage over the executive who knows little more than the feel of his computer keyboard. The less daily contact we have with what God has created, the more difficult it is to think of God as we should. Or perhaps our habitat's powerful statements about God don't impress us because they are so commonplace. We've seen sunsets on many occasions. A flower is nothing new. We saw the snow fall so many times last winter we wished we'd never see it again. And that ingenious raccoon who gets into our garbage can is nothing but a nuisance. At some point, we simply quit paying attention. Even the most amazing things cease to amaze us. But the vast, eternal sweep of God's wisdom, love, and power remains, waiting for us to open our eyes wide with the wonder that was so easy when we were children. The thunderous surf pounds the rocky shoreline every day. The clouds billow and continue their lazy drift across the blue sky. The aged oak welcomes the sparrows into its branches. The deer lifts his antlers and sniffs the wind, his ears alert. A clear stream tumbles noisily down the mountainside while the massive peak above silently surveys the earth for miles around. Everywhere, and in all things, the creation scintillates with the glory of its Maker. "The world is charged with the grandeur of God" (Gerard Manley Hopkins).

Today's Bible Quiz Answer

- d) one daughter and twelve sons
( Genesis 35: 22-26 ; 30: 21)

Jacob had twelve sons:
23 The sons of Leah:
Reuben the firstborn of Jacob, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.
24 The sons of Rachel:
Joseph and Benjamin.
25 The sons of Rachel's maidservant Bilhah:
Dan and Naphtali.
26 The sons of Leah's maidservant Zilpah:
Gad and Asher.

These were the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

27 Jacob came home to his father Isaac in Mamre, near Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed. 28 Isaac lived a hundred and eighty years. 29 Then he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, old and full of years. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Gen 30:21
21 Afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.
