Hollywood's hottest stars sure know how to make a shining example of themselves, rocking up to glamorous black-tie events in blindingly glittery numbers. Spiderman 3 actress Elizabeth Banks, Cate Blanchett, and Carmen Electra opted for all-out glimmer with their fully sequined frocks, while Style Network presenter Bobby Thomas took the 'less is more' approach with a short, sequin-pannelled dress balanced by luscious satin. Putting on the glitz is a lot easier than you think, especially now that sequins have gone from strictly-ballroom to everyday wear. For day, you can't go wrong with a light cashmere cardigan embellished with tiny sequins, or even a simple cotton T-shirt that's been jazzed up with intricate sequined patterns. Of course, it's a fine line between classy and tacky when it comes to details this striking, so go for quality sequined pieces that fit well and complement your body shape. And because you don't want your outfit to fight for attention, keep the jewellery and makeup pared-down and fuss-free. Now get out and sparkle!
