

2014 TOURNAMENT OF ROSES® ROYAL COURT

Rose Princess Kayla Diyana Johnson-Granberry, 17, attends Pasadena High School, where she competes on the tennis team. She has played the piano since the age of 8 and also enjoys photography. Kayla has participated since the 5th grade in College Bound, a weekend educational program that prepares students for admission into and graduation from higher education institutions.

Through Ideal Youth, Inc., she was an intern at the Los Angeles City Attorney's office for two years and has also participated in California Youth Think Tank, which trains and inspires young people to become future leaders. Kayla is the daughter of Derrick and Samantha Granberry; they live in Altadena.

