

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Showcases Filipino Food and Handicraft at Langara College's Asian Studies Day Celebration

04 February 2020 – (Top left photo) Consul Ma. Charmaine D. Guevara (leftmost) answers queries from students who visited the Philippine booth at Langara College's Asian Studies Day Celebration. (Right photo, L-R) Cultural Officer Lyra E. Ocampo, Consul Guevara and Consular Assistant Jeanie-vi Llonora man the booth showcasing Philippine-made handicrafts, food products, and books and brochures on Philippine tourism.

(Bottom left photo) Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria delivers her remarks on behalf of the participating Consulates, including Indonesia, Malaysia, and Thailand, during the brief program for Asian Studies Day celebration. (Right photo) Consul General Austria joins Langara College President and CEO Dr. Lane Trotter (8L), Asian Studies Department Chair Dr. Li Yu (rightmost) and the rest of the representatives from other Asian Consulates General and the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office.

