The good egg

Call # E John, Jory

The good egg has been good for as long as he can remember. While the other eggs in his carton are kind of rotten, he always does the right, kind, and courteous thing. He is a verrrrrrry good egg indeed! Until one day he decides that enough is enough! He begins to crack (quite literally) from the pressure of always having to be grade-A perfect.

Good morning, Superman

Call # E Dahl, Michael

A young boy goes through his morning routine, going potty, getting dressed, eating breakfast, brushing his teeth, packing his bag, and getting hugs and kisses, while imagining it all as a heroic adventure that Superman might have.

The great leprechaun chase

Call # E PETE Dean, James

It's St. Patrick's Day, and it's also the grand opening of Pete the Cat's leprechaun catching business.

How to give your cat a bath

Call # E Winstanley, Nicola

In this hilarious and clever "how-to," a little girl and a know-it-all narrator are thwarted by a cat who refuses to take a bath.

Hush, little bunny

Call # E Stein, David Ezra

“Hush Little Baby” is a lullaby that parents have sung to their children for generations. Now Caldecott Honor winner David Ezra Stein has reimagined the classic featuring an irresistible papa bunny and his little one.

I am Billie Jean King

Call # E Meltzer, Brad

Billie Jean King is one of the greatest tennis players of all time. Read about this amazing woman athlete in the seventeenth picture book in the New York Times bestselling series of biographies about heroes.

Islandborn

Call # E Diaz, Junot

Lola was just a baby when her family left the Island, so when she has to draw it for a school assignment, she asks her family, friends, and neighbors about their memories of her homeland ... and in the process, comes up with a new way of understanding her own heritage.

Meet Miss Fancy

Call # E Latham, Irene

Ten-year-old African American boy wants to welcome the circus elephant named Miss Fancy to her new home in a nearby park, but he is disappointed to see a sign: "No Colored Allowed".

Monkey time

Call # E Hall, Michael

Monkey tries to catch the brightly colored--and tasty-looking--minutes on the minute tree in his forest. Introduces basic concepts about time and how time passes and is measured.

P is for pterodactyl: the worst alphabet book ever

Call # E Haldar, Raj

This whimsical, funky book from Raj Haldar (aka rapper Lushlife) turns the traditional idea of an alphabet book on its head, poking fun at the most mischievous words in the English language and demonstrating how to pronounce them.

Pete the cat's world tour

Call # E PETE Dean, James

Pete the Cat and his band have packed up their bags and are ready to perform all over the globe. But what's the fun in globe-trotting if you don't go out exploring?

From Mexico to Iceland, Pete and his friends get a taste of what each country has to offer.

Pete the kitty and the case of the hiccups

Call # E KINDER PETE Dean, James

Pete gets a case of the hiccups, and he doesn't know what to do! He decides to ask his wisest friends for help, like Grumpy Toad, Callie, and Bob. But Pete is still stuck with the hiccups! Will Pete the Kitty ever get rid of his terrible hiccups?

Say something.

Call # E Reynolds, Peter

In this empowering new picture book, beloved author Peter H. Reynolds explores the many ways that a single voice can make a difference.

Sweet dreams, Supergirl

Call # E Dahl, Michael

A young Supergirl fan faces her most elusive adversary sleep! As darkness falls, a young girl attempts to catch some Z's while DC Comics' SUPERGIRL tracks down an elusive enemy. With super hero traits, like BRAVERY, PATIENCE, and PERSISTENCE, they'll both turn sleepless nights into sweet success and sweet dreams.

Under my hijab

Call # E Khan, Hena

As a young girl observes that each of six women in her life wears her hijab and hair in a different way, she considers how to express her own style one day.

When sadness is at your door

Call # E Eland, Eva
