Temple Beth Shalom
Creating Community, Celebrating Diversity

Temple Beth Shalom is a dynamic, welcoming congregation, creating community and celebrating diversity. We strive to be a leading religious community by living “Our Shared Values” based on Torah and Jewish tradition. We provide a spiritual home for transformative learning, inspiring prayer and communal gatherings where people are included, embraced and valued. We maintain a deep connection with Israel and world Jewry. We are mindful of our obligation to sustain the environment and heal the world.

Temple Beth Shalom Membership

We invite you to find your unique place in our community, whether it be through spirituality, learning, social justice programs or social activities. By joining Temple Beth Shalom, you help to create and support a community of Jews of all ages and backgrounds who share a common vision. Your membership contribution makes the work of our dynamic community possible.

Temple Beth Shalom Services

On Friday evening welcome Shabbat with joyful singing, introspective readings and other members of your Temple Beth Shalom family. Our Kabbalat Shabbat service bridges the world of progressive and traditional services and is based on the traditional siddur.

* indicates individuals who have a memorial plaque in their honor are also listed in the Yahrzeit section of our newsletter with an asterisk next to their name.

If you are interested in purchasing a Memorial Plaque, please contact the Temple office by phone at 697-2662 or email us at tbshalom@gmail.com. The cost is $250 per plaque. We continue to strive to maintain accurate records of your loved ones passing so that we may honor them appropriately.
November Events & Programs...

Lay-led services are scheduled November 3 and 17 at 7:15 p.m. November 17 is TBS Charter Night Shabbat Service.

Sisterhood Book Group meets Wednesday, November 8 at the home of Gen Reed. The book for discussion is Hillbilly Elegy: a Memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis by J.D. Vance.

“From a former marine and Yale Law School graduate, a powerful account of growing up in a poor Rust Belt town that offers a broader, probing look at the struggles of America’s white working class. Hillbilly Elegy is a passionate and personal analysis of a culture in crisis—that of white working-class Americans. The decline of this group, a demographic of our country that has been slowly disintegrating over forty years, has been reported on with growing frequency and alarm, but has never before been written about as searingly from the inside. J. D. Vance tells the true story of what a social, regional, and class decline feels like when you were born with it hung around your neck.

The Vance family story begins hopefully in postwar America. J. D.’s grandparents were “dirt poor and in love,” and moved north from Kentucky’s Appalachia region to Ohio in the hopes of escaping the dreadful poverty around them. They raised a middle-class family, and eventually their grandchild (the author) would graduate from Yale Law School, a conventional marker of their success in achieving generational upward mobility. But as the family saga of Hillbilly Elegy plays out, we learn that this is only the short, superficial version. Vance’s grandparents, aunt, uncle, sister, and, most of all, his mother, struggled profoundly with the demands of their new middle-class life, and were never able to fully escape the legacy of abuse, alcoholism, poverty, and trauma so characteristic of their part of America. Vance piercingly shows how he himself still carries around the demons of their chaotic family history.

A deeply moving memoir with its share of humor and vividly colorful figures, Hillbilly Elegy is the story of how upward mobility really feels. And it is an urgent and troubling meditation on the loss of the American dream for a large segment of this country.” (Provided by the publisher.)

All women are welcome to attend this group. Please contact Gen through the TBS office at tbsshalom@gmail.com if you plan to attend.

Ruach: Girls Rule!

Hebrew High is resurrecting a girls-only club for 6th & 7th graders, much like Rosh Chodesh, called Ruach: Girls Rule!

Ruach will be all about having fun with other Jewish girls. Together they will get creative, explore Jewish traditions, culture, and values. They will discuss what matters to them! Ruach gives girls a safe place to articulate their questions and concerns about what is important to them, have fun, and be ‘real’ with their peers through discussion, arts & crafts, and other activities.

Ruach meets once a month for two hours, during Hebrew High hours (1-3) and will meet in the Silver Academy's library. The group will be facilitated by Rebecca Robinson. Registration will be online soon. Cost = $218 (includes all materials)

Please let Sally Jo Bronner know if you are interested:

Moderated by David Bernstein - President and CEO of the Jewish Council for Public Affairs (JCPA).

Sunday, Nov. 5 | 7:00 PM
Location: Beth El Harrisburg
2637 N. Front St, Harrisburg, PA 17110

Thought leaders Tobin and Goldberg will debate critical issues concerning the State of Israel. They will touch on such questions as: “Is Israel engaged in a local dispute between two peoples claiming the same land or a global conflict between Western democracy and Islamist terrorism? Is partition into two states the way to ensure Israel’s survival or a path to continuing strife?” Tobin and Goldberg’s statements partly articulate debating points and partly lessons to teach the audience to listen to the ‘other’ and to genuinely consider the possibility that there are other legitimate opinions to be heard. This touring debate of “spirited civil disagreement may trigger a certain degree of distress, but is also healthy both for American democracy and the Jewish World,” states Tobin in an editorial piece in JNS.ORG (Jewish News Service).

Babysitting is available. See registration site for details.

Exalted and hallowed be God’s great name in the world which God created, according to plan.
May God’s majesty be revealed in the days of our lifetime and the life of all Israel -- speedily, imminently, to which we say Amen.

Blessed be God’s great name to all eternity.

Blessed, praised, honored, exalted, extolled, glorified, adored, and lauded be the name of the Holy Blessed One, beyond all earthly words and songs of blessing, praise, and comfort. To which we say Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life, for us and all Israel,
to which we say Amen.

May the One who creates harmony on high, bring peace to us and to all Israel.
To which we say Amen.
