

Preamble and Preliminary Statement

PREAMBLE

In fulfilling the role of a women's gymnastic judge, the individual judge assumes a role that requires the performance of many difficult tasks not all of which can be foreseen. It is the purpose of the Code of Professional Responsibility to provide the fundamental ethical principles which are always present to guide the judges so as to insure, as best it can be insured, that the judge's conduct will be such as will be responsible and promote respect for the dignity not only of the judge but also for the Association of which she/he is a part. The Code of Professional Responsibility is intended to provide standards by which to judge one charged with being a transgressor of the Code and to provide the procedures whereby the Association and the judge may be dealt with in a fair and just manner. The fulfillment of the role of a women's gymnastic judge who is a part of the National Association of Women's Gymnastic Judges requires an understanding by the individual judge of her/his relationship with and function in a well ordered and justly administered system of judging women's gymnastics events and it is this which creates and give rise to the consequent or resultant obligation on the part of the individual judge to maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct and personal and professional integrity at all times.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This Code of Professional Responsibility consists of three but interrelated parts: Canons, Disciplinary Rules and Disciplinary Action. The Canons express in general terms the conduct expected of women's gymnastic judges in their relationship with the public, with the Association and with the profession of judging in general; the Canons embody the general concepts from which the ethical consideration and disciplinary rules are derived. The Disciplinary Rules are mandatory and set forth the minimum level of conduct below which no judge who is a member of the Association can fall and will be uniformly applied to all members. Permeating both the Canons and the Disciplinary Rules are matters of ethics which represent the objective toward which every member of the Association should strive.

Such a report shall be deemed to be and shall be referred to as a “grievance” and shall state in detail the nature of the violation of which complaint is made and the details and circumstances of its occurrence.

B. DISPOSITION OF GRIEVANCE - PROCEDURE: The State Judging Director in receipt of such grievance shall transmit a copy thereof to the party who is the subject of the grievance and this shall be by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, with delivery restricted to the addressee only. The envelope in which same is transmitted to such party shall be plainly marked “Personal and Confidential” so as to further insure the confidentiality of the matter at this stage of the proceedings. The State Judging Director shall upon receipt of such grievance convene a panel comprised of such State Judging Director and two other State Judging Directors of her/his selection within the same Region as the State of violation.

(a) A date, time and place shall be fixed for the hearing of the grievance and the party who is the object of such grievance shall be informed and advised in writing of the date, time and location of the hearing (as well as the composition of the panel to hear same) and shall be accorded a reasonable opportunity to appear personally before the panel and to present testimony or other evidence in defense of the charge.

(b) It shall be optional with the reporting party to attend or not to attend such hearing. The party who is the object of the grievance may elect to present her/his evidence in written form for the consideration of the panel and may elect not appear personally.

(c) The panel shall, within thirty (30) days from and after the conclusion of the hearing or the review of the written submissions render its decision as to the merit or lack of merit of the grievance.

(d) In the event that the grievance is found by a majority of the panel to be without merit, the matter shall thereupon terminate and no further action on such grievance shall be taken either by the panel, the party, the party who is the object of such grievance or the reporting party and the panel shall make its findings in written form and shall transmit a copy of its findings to the reporting party, to the party against whom the proceedings were initiated and to the National Judging Director for inclusion in the official records of this Association.

The party reported upon and against whom action is to be taken shall have the right to the appeal and findings and judgment if, and only if, less than a unanimous finding and judgment was made by the panel. Such Regional Director shall refer a copy of the record as developed during the proceedings before the State Judging Director to two other Regional Directors of her/his selection and they, solely upon the record thus made at the State Judging Director's level and exclusive of any appearance by the reporting party, the aggrieved party or any other party, such panel shall, within thirty (30) days from and after receipt by all three Regional Judging Directors of a copy of such record make their findings and judgment on the record thus presented and by the majority vote of such panel shall either affirm or sustain or reverse the findings and judgment of the State Judging Director's panel. In the event that the judgment of the State Judging

Director's panel's action is reversed and the aggrieved party is thereby exonerated, the matter shall end at that point and there shall be no further proceedings or appeals. In the event that the State Judging Directors panel's findings and judgments are sustained then the matter shall, likewise end; provided, however, that in the event the State Judging Director's panel's findings and judgment are sustained by less than a unanimous vote of the Regional Director's panel, then in such event, the aggrieved party may initiate a further appeal in like manner and within the same time period to a panel composed of the Association's National Judging Director and two Governing Board Members appointed by her. The Findings and Judgment of the Regional Judging Director's panel shall be sent to the reporting party, the aggrieved party and to the National Judging Director for inclusion in the Association's records.

At this final level of appeal, a decision of the majority of the panel thus constituted shall be final and there shall be no further appeal permitted.

(g) All such appeals which the aggrieved person intends to initiate shall be initiated by her/him within fifteen (15) days after receipt by her/him of a copy of the findings from the hearing last held and conducted (or, if not a hearing, the findings resulting from a appeal) in the matter of the subject grievance and with respect to which a majority or more of the panel sustained the grievance. Initiation of an appeal shall be by letter from the aggrieved party that she/he desires the matter be heard by the next higher level of authority within the Association as herein provided. Such letter requesting this appeal shall be termed a "Notice of Appeal" and shall be sent by the aggrieved party by certified mail to the State Judging Director or the Regional Judging Director, as the case may be, who last heard the matter and who was the director selecting the other members of the panel which heard the matter. The date of the posting or delivery of the notice of appeal, whichever shall be sooner, shall be the date of the initiation of the appeal.

(h) There shall be no appeal from a grievance which a majority of any of the panels herein mentioned found to be without merit. In the event that the aggrieved party is a State Judging Director, a Regional Judging Director or an Officer (other than the National Judging Director, then, in such event, in the case of State and Regional Directors and Officers other than the National Judging Director, the National Judging Director shall designate an appropriate replacement to act as part of the panel instead of the aggrieved party to decide such grievance. If the aggrieved party is the National Judging Director, then, in such event, the replacement shall be designated by the Governing Board of the Association.

The panel to which an appeal has been taken shall have the prerogative of sustaining the findings and judgment of the panel from which the appeal was taken but a majority of such panel to which appeal was taken shall also have the prerogative of modifying the penalty imposed by, and only by, reducing the severity thereof.
