Welcome

Carly Parkhill, President, welcomed everyone to the meeting.

Principal Update

Principal Eyerman gave a round of applause for all of the volunteers and everyone who helped with the book fair this year. He appreciates everyone's help. Principal Eyerman will be giving tours of the school to new families every Tuesday. The 5 Hive or Kindergarten Roundup will be this Friday at 9am and families can register online. Principal Eyerman announced that he will be having a Coffee with the Principal on 12/3 at 9am. He is also planning a Pizza with the Principal in the evening in mid January at the Ice Den. More info is to come. Mr. Eyerman has a webinar and site visit next week to learn more about the Pre Advanced Placement Program. Principal Eyerman will be launching a series of events called the Uniform Town Hall 2020. Starting in the spring he will have three different sessions parents can attend to give input on the dress code. Two of the meetings will be held in the morning and one will be in the evening. Principal Eyerman presented a slide show on behalf of Mrs. Ambri on the Teacher Employment Agreement. If you have questions please contact Mrs. Ambri.

Carnival

Carly gave a huge shout out to Meredith Abramson for all of her hard work, and the success of over 500 wristbands and more than 7000 raffle tickets sold. Two more baskets remain unclaimed in the CRS front office. Please bring your ticket to claim the baskets. The numbers are posted on social media and were sent in an email Tuesday night, November 11th.

Book Fair

Carly gave praise to Stephanie Halvorson, Robyn Wallace and Christine Deaton for all of their hard work on the book fair this year. The book fair exceeded the goals for elementary and middle school this year. Robyn will be entering our school into the National Scholastic Competition for next year. The winning school will have a well known author come and visit our school.

ESF

Melissa Price spoke about the Lip Sync Battle that will be on 2/6 at 2:15 to raise funds for ESF. Each student can pay $20 to participate in a no uniform week from 12/2-12/6. The first 50 parents that would like to attend the Lip Sync Battle can pay $20 to come and watch. The event is not to be missed!

Art Masterpiece

Angie O'Brien said that this year's Art Masterpiece project will be a collaboration with all the classes to create a piece that will be displayed on campus. She will coordinate an hour time block with each class K-5th to help with the project. They need bottle caps and lids of all shapes, colors and sizes and they can be collected in the light blue bins in the classrooms and all over campus. She will be collecting lids and caps through the rest of the year and she really needs parents to help collect.

Teacher Holiday Luncheon

Carrie Kuipers and Katrina Dickes are organizing the Holiday Luncheon for our teachers this year. They will be sending out a Sign Up Genius for parents to volunteer for setup, cleanup, gift card donations and to bring in food for the potluck.

Family Reading Night

Barnes and Noble will be hosting our Copper Ridge Family Reading Night on 2/19 from 4pm-8pm at the location on Shea and the 101. Proceeds from anything purchased in the store will go back to CR.

Fundraising Events

Meredith Miller announced that there will be an Ice Den Skate and to save the date on 2/28. The Kendra Scott Fundraiser will be on 12/12 from 10-5pm.

Spirit Wear

Lindsey Harrington reordered a lot of sweatshirts in all sizes and the youth small girls gray and pink shirts. You can order online at <https://crpto.membershiptoolkit.com> and have your order delivered straight to your students classroom.

Holiday Fundraising Drives

Carly said that the student government is collecting canned foods and students can bring them to their classrooms to donate. NJHS will be supporting Child Help Wings AZ and will be collecting different items and more info is to come. Copper Ridge will be doing a collection of various items for Tonalea Elementary in January and more info is to come.
