

Fisher, Martin J.

Martin "Mark" Fisher, 70, of Port Austin, died Saturday, June 7, 2003, at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe. He was born Aug. 17, 1932 in Port Austin, son of the late Frank and Anna (Jimkoski) Fisher. Martin was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin. He is survived by three daughters, Sheri Nowiski and her husband, Keith, of Port Austin, Janet LaValley and her husband, Ronny, and Pam Fisher and her special friend, Brian, of Elkton; one son, Chuck Fisher and his wife, Vickie, of North Carolina; six grandchildren, Melinda, Angela, Camille, Robby, Casey, and Brianna; two great-great-granddaughters; five sisters, Tillie Ventline, Agnes Inda, Helen Schramski and her husband, John, Josephine Kozlowski and her husband, Harry, and Florence Prill and her husband, Alex; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by one son, Tim Fisher; and one brother, Albert "Jim" Fisher. Funeral mass will be at 11 a.m. on Monday, June 9, 2003, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin. Officiating will be the Rev. Robert Pare, pastor. Burial will follow in St. Michael's Cemetery. There will be a vigil at 7:30 tonight at the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home and from 10 a.m. until the time of service Monday at the church.