

World Automobile Auctioneers Professional Association Sponsorship Award Due March 26, 2018

WHEREAS: The Board of Directors of the World Automobile Auctioneers Association has established a Sponsorship Award.

WHEREAS: The purpose of this Sponsorship Award will be to pay the entry fee for a first-time Auctioneer/Ring Person competitor to enter the 2018 World Automobile Auctioneers Contest.

In order to participate in the scholarship process, the following requirements must be met:

1. The President of the World Automobile Auctioneers Professional Association shall appoint a Committee consisting of three (3) members of the World Automobile Auctioneers Professional Association, which will administer the awarding of one (1) sponsorship each year. It shall be the duty of the Committee to ascertain whether the sponsorship applications and other required documentation are complete and whether the application meets all the requirements necessary to be awarded a sponsorship. It shall be solely up to the discretion of the Committee to determine which applicant shall be awarded a sponsorship. The Committee's decision shall be based on character references and any other criteria the Committee may find appropriate under the individual circumstance. The candidates shall be required to submit a one page statement regarding his/her opinion why he/she feels themselves to be an appropriate candidate for sponsorship.
2. All World Automobile Auctioneers Professional Association members are eligible to apply.
3. The sponsorship application must be fully executed, and it must be accompanied by the official registration form and/or application for the program for which the applicant is applying. All documents must be completed in full.
4. Any awarded sponsorship will be paid directly to the WAAC with any refunds returned payable to the World Automobile Auctioneers Professional Association.
5. The sponsorship recipient fully understands that they are responsible for all other expenses related to competing in the WAAC contest.
6. The sponsorship recipient must either attend a general membership meeting and give an oral report or, in the alternative, submit a written report, outlining what he/she has gained from the sponsorship program.
