

Sacraments:

Infant Baptism -- Parents need to contact the pastor regarding instruction/preparation. The sacrament will be scheduled when the parents and pastor are in agreement that the family is ready for this experience.

Initiation of Adults & Older Children (RCIA): Contact the parish.

Reconciliation: Saturday at 4:00pm at Nativity or by appointment (watch bulletin for special reconciliation services).

Matrimony -- Engaged couples need to contact the pastor at least six months prior to the proposed wedding date. They need to participate in a series of instructions. They should make no final decision regarding the wedding date until they and the pastor are in agreement that they are ready for this experience. Please do not set a wedding date prior to contacting the pastor.

Sacrament of the Sick and/or Communion for the Sick -- Either the parishioner or a relative should contact the pastor whenever the parishioner is sick and wishes to receive communion or the Sacrament of the Sick.

Confirmation: Adult & Youth; preparation is required. Please contact the parish.

Parish registration: Registration cards are in the vestibule of the church.

"The ends of the earth will remember and again turn to Yahweh. All the tribes of the nations will bow down before your face, because Yahweh is truly the king, the One ruling over the nations." (Psalm 22:28-29)

Announcements

General:

RCIA will resume January 8, 2019. The next 14 weeks will deal with the Rite of Acceptance. All are welcome to attend. Contact Jewell Lee at 503-410-6425.

Nativity:

A “thank you” to all the parishioners who provided hospitality in 2018. The fellowship after Mass is a joyful time with or without our sweets, but having them makes our time together even "sweeter!" A new sign-up sheet for 2019 is on the bulletin board. A big “thank you” also goes out to all who add to our hospitality donation can every Sunday. Hopefully, more can contribute. Some of you do not have time to host a Sunday, but your donations replenish all of our supplies; paper plates, coffee cups, napkins, plastic ware, creamers, coffee, paper towels, and bathroom supplies. Without donations, all the expenses would have to be taken from the general fund. So “thank you” again for all of your support.

Bible Study –Bible Study will resume this Wednesday, January 9, at 6:30pm in the hall.

St. Johns:

Ladies’ Bible Study & Reflection is on Thursdays. Adoration is at 9:45am in the Church. After Adoration, everyone meets at Kathy’s. If interested, call Kathy Reandeu at 503-728-3149.

Mass Intentions: The intention for the Sunday Mass is for the whole parish.

Movement and Posture

The gestures and posture of the priest, the deacon, and the ministers, as well as those of the people, ought to contribute to making the entire celebration resplendent with beauty and noble simplicity, so that the true and full meaning of the different parts, rites and prayers of the celebration is evident and that the participation of all is fostered. Therefore, attention should be paid to what is determined by liturgical norms and the traditional practice of the Roman Rite and to what serves the common spiritual good of the People of God, rather than private inclination or arbitrary choice. A common posture, to be observed by all participants, is a sign of the unity of the members of the Christian community gathered for the Sacred Liturgy. It both expresses and fosters the intention and spiritual attitude of the participants.

In the dioceses of the United States of America, the faithful should kneel beginning after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) until after the Amen of the Eucharistic Prayer. Exceptions may be when one is prevented on occasion by reasons of ill health, or for reasons of lack of space, of the large number of people present, or for another reasonable cause. However, those who do not kneel ought to make a profound bow when the priest genuflects after the Consecration. In the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon, it is determined that the faithful kneel after the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God).

For the sake of uniformity in gestures and bodily postures during one and the same celebration, the faithful should follow the instructions which the deacon, a lay minister or the priest gives, according to what is prescribed in the Missal.

Liturgical gesture and movement for the sake of inculturation may be used, when appropriate, before or after a Mass or other liturgical rite, though preferably outside the church. However, dance within the liturgy is prohibited.
