

Easter Experience at Silver Bell Farm

Easter Bunny Drive Thru

When you arrive at the farm, please follow the guidelines below:

- Follow signage to the entrance for the experience.
Note: Cars will be exiting through the regular farm entrance.
- Everyone must remain in their vehicle.
- Cars will proceed and wait on the path going across the field.
- One car will approach the Easter Bunny at a time.

Silver Bell Farm is excited to offer this drive thru event and book to our guests. We want to ensure that everyone remains safe during this experience. We recommend that this be your only stop along your journey and that you continue to adhere to “social distancing” and “stay at home” guidelines.

“Easter on the Farm”

An Easter Bunny Story

Don't forget your free e-book “Easter on the Farm.” As part of our egg hunt events, we were going to give our hunters a book about the Easter Bunny visiting the farm. This book is available to download for free on Amazon from Friday to Easter Sunday. We hope you enjoy!
