

William Kelley One Act Team Performs

"A Human Write"

submitted by Katie Fritz

There are times when we are our own best cheerleader. Other times, we are our own worst enemy. This could not be more true than in the story "A Human Write" by Amy Sutton, this year's William M. Kelley High School One Act Play. In the play, a writer is about to give up, having convinced herself that she is has no talent and happy endings don't exist. Her own thoughts, however, refuse to give up on her. In a Greek chorus inspired group, the writer's thoughts break out of her mind and become characters in the play who argue with her, encourage her, and challenge her to write. In the process, the thoughts create stories and force the writer to relive memories, providing the writer with material to build her masterpiece. The play ends on a hopeful note – maybe happy endings do exist, maybe we really do all have stories to tell, maybe chasing a dream is worth it.

Students have been hard at work preparing this challenging show. Rather than typical dialogue, the actors' lines mingle together as five people work to represent the thoughts of one person. Sometimes speaking and moving as one, sometimes finishing each other's sentences – each actor represents a part of a whole.

The students will take this show on the road to compete in the Minnesota High School League One Act Competition. They will attend the sub-section tournament on Saturday, January 26 in Two Harbors. Here, they will compete against six other schools in hopes of continuing on to the section tournament in Hibbing the following weekend. In addition to scores at competition, students receive feedback from professional theater judges to help improve the show. If you come out to see the first Silver Bay show, come back for the second one to see how they have grown from their competition experience.

A Human Write Cast and Crew.

Auditorium on Wednesday, January 23 and Wednesday, January 30 at 6:30 p.m. (Note: there was an error in the Good News Community Education Bulletin: there is no February 6 show, but there is a January 23 show.)

The 35-minute show is family friendly. Admission is free with donations accepted. The students are hosting a bake sale before and after each show to raise money for the program.

In addition to an awesome show, come early on Wednesday, January 30 between 4:30 and 6:00 to attend the Community Dinner hosted by St. Mary's Church in the William M. Kelley cafeteria. Think of it as Silver Bay's very own Dinner Theater experience!

Help send the One Act students to competition with a supportive hometown crowd! Who knows – maybe the play will even inspire you to go home and write down your own story.
