

Citizens for Fiscal Responsibility (CFR) is endorsing Lan Diep for San Jose City Council in the April 7 District 4 special Primary Election. Our members gave Mr. Diep a 75.5 rating, indicating they believe he is strongly committed to keeping San Jose on a fiscally sustainable path.

CFR is a non-partisan organization focused on promoting the fiscally responsible delivery of essential services for the benefit of San Jose's residents. Each city election, our members evaluate candidates on traits we believe are critical to responsibly dealing with San Jose's financial obligations. These ratings are based on responses to a questionnaire we provide all candidates, reviews of candidate web sites, and our members' personal knowledge of and experience with the candidates. Three of the candidates for the District 4 special election, Diep, M. Nguyen, and Lee, responded to our survey.

Details on our ratings and methodology are available at www.CFR-SJ.org.
