Armed as you Drive, Armed at Home, and Armed at Work

Ammoland Inc. by Rob Morse. Please click the link to read the entire article.

You didn't see these stories covered by the mainstream news media, but again last week, responsible gun owners defended themselves and the people they love.

1st story- Are you armed at work as you drive? - You drive a taxi. It is about 6:30 in the evening when you drive up to your next address. 3 young men walk up to your car. 2 of them get in the back, & one of them gets into the front seat next to you. The passenger in the front seat pulls a gun from his pants & tells you to get out and leave the keys.

2nd Story- Are you armed at home? - You're letting a female friend stay w/you as she flees from domestic abuse. Someone knocks on your door & your friend opens. Her husband runs inside and threatens everyone.

3rd story- Are you armed at work in the evening? - You're at work. You manage a Dollar General store. One of your clerks waves you over with a problem. You move behind the register & turn toward the customer. "How can I help you", you ask. "Open the register", he says. He taps his waist, & you see a gun shoved in his pants. You are being robbed at gunpoint.

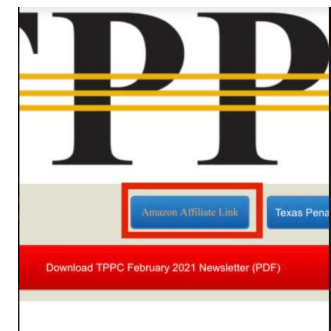

4th story- Are you armed at home? - It's 7:30 in the morning when you hear glass breaking in your home. You grab your gun and investigate. A strange young man moves toward you. You shout, & then you present your firearm & shoot him until he stops. He runs downstairs into your basement. Now you call the police.

What is happening at the Club?

Thanks to all those who helped.

March's New Member Sign-ups and Existing Membership renewals were a success. Thank you for all those that assisted. Volunteers helped this endeavor by directing people which lines to go, looking over paperwork, verifying training dates, performing safety training, verifying applicable discounts, processing payments, and programming card access.

Reminder for those that haven't renewed

The Club Orientation, Range Safety, and Simulator Courses are available online for existing members. By taking advantage of this it will allow you to bypass the training after the meetings so you can proceed to the signup tables.

For new members they will need to sit through the live classroom training after the meetings. This gives them a chance to ask more questions to help understand the safety topics and rules of the range.

Reloading Classes

If you are interested in reloading your own ammunition, we have started a signup list available at the meetings.

April's Shooting Drill

The last few years I have provided many resources for Dry Firing practices due to the higher cost of ammo and the lack of availability. Now that that availability has come back, I'll start posting some shooting drills everyone should attempt.

This month we will start concentrating on off-hand/primary/strong hand only shooting. When it comes to shooting your pistol, there are several different techniques you can use. There's the average shooter's technique, where you use your strong shooting hand to pull the trigger and your weak hand as support, but then there's also offhand shooting. Offhand shooting simply means you shoot without your support hand. This might be a little odd for some folks, but with a little practice, you'll get the hang of it. It's good to practice shooting like this in case your support hand is ever out of commission, which doesn't necessarily mean someone shot your hand off, it could just be occupied with a flashlight.

Working the Room: Strategies to Bring People to Our Side

By Jim Doyle
04/07/2022

To lead people, you have to understand with whom you are interacting. How informed are they? Where on the political spectrum are they? How likely are they to change their minds?

Put the Burden of Proof on Them

Knowing that our opponents are trying to make us look unhinged, we are in a battle to look more reasonable than the other side in the discussion. This often comes down to tone.

Cater to the Outsiders Looking In

In a social media debate, most of your audience is not actually participating. You may be arguing with one or several people, but you are unlikely to sway those people. Remember that you are also making the case to anyone following the comments. Your target audience is neither the pro-gun crowd, who already agrees with you, nor the anti-gun crowd, who will never agree with you. You are looking to persuade the undecided folks and the skeptics.

Stay On Message

Our strongest case is when we calmly explain the basis for our position: Life is a fundamental human right, and we have an embedded right to defend our own lives with proportionate force. For practical purposes, police cannot adequately provide that protection because it takes too long to get them on scene. Guns do not guarantee our safety, but they offer us a choice and a chance — something better than begging for our kids' lives.

Adjusted NICS Background Checks for March 2022 - Third strongest for the month on record

The March 2022 NSSF-adjusted National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) figure of 1,669,578 is a decrease of 18.3 percent compared to the March 2021 NSSF-adjusted NICS figure of 2,044,136. For comparison, the unadjusted March 2022 FBI NICS figure 3,014,465 reflects a 35.1 percent decrease from the unadjusted FBI NICS figure of 4,645,609 in March 2021.

The March 2022 figures are the third strongest for the month on record, surpassed by March 2021 and March 2020.

The first quarter 2022 NSSF-adjusted National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) figure of 4,212,539 reflects a decrease of 23.2 percent compared to the 5,483,342 figure for the first quarter 2021, which remains the highest first-quarter on record.
