DID YOU KNOW?

MEET OUR GUEST PASTOR:

Rev. Sharmune Burgess is the pastor of Oak Grove and Ebenezer UMC churches in Moundsville. Pastor Burgess came to the West Virginia Conference on loan from the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference (in the Poconos) in 2015. Since coming to the area, she has chosen to follow the ordination process in the West Virginia Conference. She served as the Associate Pastor of Discipleship at East Stroudsburg United Methodist and the Pastor of Worship at the Analomink United Methodist Church. She also served at the Richmond United Methodist Church and the Portland United Methodist Church – all in Pennsylvania. Pastor Burgess gained her MDIV from Moravian Seminary, Bethlehem, PA. She attended Macbeth College and South Bank University in London, England for Social work and Computer Science. Rev. Burgess is originally from St. Kitts in the West Indies but as a teen moved and lived much of her life in England, United Kingdom before coming to the United States in 1997. Rev. Burgess is the parent of an adult daughter who resides and works as a social worker in Philadelphia, PA.
