

311 GALLERY ARTISTS

LIZZIE BAILEY

Image: Tree of Life

Lizzie Bailey is a versatile stained-glass artist and photographer. She finds inspiration as she views traditional and architectural designs through the eye of her lens and world travels. Her latest signature pieces reflect her visits to countries throughout Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

KIM BALENTINE

Image: Beach

Kim has been painting for most of her life. She enjoys painting abstracts, local buildings, and whimsical animals using acrylic and watercolor.

AMY BESHGETOORIAN

Image: Vintage Ride

Amy is a watercolor artist. She creates space for energy to flow through her paintings by allowing the water to mix and move her pigments. Her colorful paintings often depict animals and landscapes of Johnston County, where she lives. Amy uses a contemporary method of mounting her watercolors without using

ALLEN CLAPP

Image: Red Sky at Night

Originally trained in landscape painting in the 1950s, Allen fell in love with abstract painting in the early 1960s. He creates complementary contradictions between delicate and riotous colors and smooth and sharp textures to produce harmonious movement in a symphony of color.