

KEY TERMS MATCH

Match the following terms and descriptions:

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| 1. A distinctive and patterned way of thinking about how political life ought to be carried out | a. Almond and Verba |
| 2. The condition of being relatively free of governmental restraints | b. Americanism |
| 3. A belief that one can affect government policies | c. blue states |
| 4. The inclination to believe that one's efforts and rewards in life are to be conducted and enjoyed by oneself, apart from larger social groupings | d. civic competence |
| 5. Individual who explained the rise of capitalism in part by what he called the Protestant ethic | e. civic duty |
| 6. The condition in which people, although not guaranteed equal rewards, expect to have comparable chances to compete for those rewards | f. class consciousness |
| 7. Refers to states that vote Democrat | g. Congregational |
| 8. Conducted a famous cross-national study of political participation | h. Erik Erikson |
| 9. The feeling that one ought to do one's share in community affairs, irrespective of concrete rewards | i. equal opportunity |
| 10. A word used in naming a congressional committee to merge the concepts of acceptance of national values and goodness itself | j. Individualism |
| 11. A political party that opposes the majority party but within the context of the legal rules of the game | k. liberty |
| 12. Individual who described race relations as "an American dilemma" resulting from a conflict between the "American creed" and "American behavior" | l. Gunnar Myrdal |
| 13. A set of values that includes working hard, saving one's money, and obeying the law | m. opposition party |
| 14. A persistent word in our vocabulary that indicates Americans are bound by common values and hopes | n. orthodox (social) |
| 15. A kind of church in which members control activities, whether erecting a building, hiring a preacher, or managing its finances | o. political culture |
| 16. Refers to those states that vote Republican | p. political ideology |
| 17. The willingness to allow people with whom one disagrees to have the full protection of the laws when they express their opinions | q. political tolerance |
| 18. The awareness of belonging to a particular socioeconomic group whose interests are different from those of others | r. progressive (social) |
| 19. People who believe that moral rules are derived from God, are unchanging, and are more important than individual choice | s. red states |
| 20. Psychologist who noted distinct traits of American and European families | t. un-American |
| 21. A relatively consistent set of views of the policies government ought to pursue | u. Max Weber |
| 22. People who believe that moral rules are derived in part from an individual's beliefs and the circumstances of modern life | v. work ethic |