Musician of the Month

Randy Lee Six

My name is Randy Lee Six and I've loved music for as long as I can remember. I come from humble roots in Zanesville, OH, listening from everything like Alan Jackson, Tanya Tucker and George Jones to Mötley Crüe, Eminem and Metallica and everything inbetween. I was a member of the Zanesville City Schools orchestra in 7th, 8th, and 12th grade as well as the Blue Knights Jazz Band, playing the upright bass. These days, my tastes vary widely from classical to heavy metal but I found a love for the deep southern roots of the blues and found a niche for it. I still find myself playing acoustic covers of rock songs and country songs, but the blues warms my soul knowing I'm not the only person who has been down on their luck. I will be playing at Kristen Leigh Brown's studio the first Friday in December and I look forward to meeting each and everyone who would like to meet me.

Artist of the Month

The Forget Me Not Shop

Our story started in the 70s, when my great grandfather taught my mother, who was 10 at the time, to build and refurbish items. It became a passion of her's. She has built furniture for as long as I can remember, and she has inspired me to build and make stuff too. We also offer handmade signs, antiques, and gift items. In 2013 my mother and I decided to turn our passion into a business and we were so excited. We started looking for a store front in November of that year, we found just that! We purchased the building you now know as The Forget Me Not Shop in downtown Zanesville! By February of 2014, the building was officially ours! We began painting and making the place our own! Our grand opening was on May 16, 2014, which was also my parents 33rd wedding anniversary. The Forget Me Not was their wedding flower and now it means much more to all of us.

Now we are to 2022 and things are just as exciting. My mother now has 4 beautiful grand babies, and with that being said, she has made the decision to pass the store onto me and spend this time relaxing and loving on the little ones. I am so happy to step into the new role of owner and manager as well as to introduce fun new products to make the store my own.

Zanesville Museum of Art

Enjoy a fun, festive evening at the Zanesville Museum of Art's Annual Holiday Concert, Thursday, December 8, 5:30pm. Stroll the galleries and enjoy live musical performances throughout the museum! Reserve your seat today for this popular event at zanesvilleart.org.

Poetry and collage by Kay Israel, will be on display in the lobby at the John McIntire Library, during the month of January.

The ZAAP Gallery features Raymond Ramos for December. Ramos, born in Zanesville, has loved art since he was a child making art with his father. He most frequently works in oils, acrylics, and clay but enjoys all media. From album covers to public murals, Ramos's pop impressionistic style will catch your attention and then draw you in to see the world through his eyes. "Art is more powerful when it's used for good" is Ramos's inspiration for using his talents to help his community by raising funds, speaking, teaching, and serving. Be inspired by Ramos's art at the ZAAP Gallery on First Friday, 5 to 8 pm and Thursdays through Sundays 1 - 5 pm through December.
