

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PAGE III

Vol 8, con't:

Page 13 = Star Thistle

Page 14-15 = History of the Volunteer Fire Dept's in Capay Valley

Page 16-17 = Sheriff's Log

Page 18-21 = Owls of Capay Valley/Hungry Hollow: Barn and Booby Owls

Page 22 = Memorial: "Sonny" Paul Stephens

Page 23 = Olive Products

Page 24--Subscription Info; Olive Oils Products; Karita's, Karen Hackett Duncan

Volume 9 (Begins on Book Page 169)

Page Cover-1 = Introduction by Editor, Elizabeth Monroe: Home

Page 1-9; 12-14; 24 = Contents/Works Cited; Historic Homes of Capay Valley

Page 10-11; 15 = Rodeos and "On His Feet Pete" Lopez

Page 16-17; 22 = Ol' Doc Thornton Craig and Midwife-nurse Mary Gaither

Page 18-19 = Mallards

Page 20-21 = Figs

Page 23 = Cemetery Names

Page 24--Subscription Info; Vintage Homes of Capay Valley

Volume 10 (Begins on Book Page 193)

Page Cover-1 = Introduction by Editor, Elizabeth Monroe

Page 1-5 = Contents/Works Cited; Valley Oaks

Page 6- = Mary Elizabeth Franklin Duncan speaks

Page 7-9 = Doc Thornton Craig part 2

Page 11-13 = Hungry Hollow Phone Company: Rominger, Durst & Mast

Page 14-16 = Farming and Giving

Page 17 = Freddie Lantz

Page 18-19 = Mary Gaither – Nurse-Midwife of Capay Valley

Page 20 = Sheriffs Monroe: James William and Forrest D. Monroe

Page 21-23 = Mockingbirds

Page 24--Subscription Info; Valley Oak and Inn at Park Winter

Volume 11 (Begins on Book Page 217)

Page Cover-1 = Introduction by Editor, Elizabeth Monroe – Spring has Sprung!

Page 2 = Contents/Works Cited; Almond blossoms and snakes!

Page 3 = old Washing Machines and Gardening!

Page 4-6 = Esparto Memories of Bill Harris and John Gallardo

Page 7 = Crowder's Pool

Page 8-10 = Guinda and Rumsey: the "Social Halls"

Page 11 = Big Animal Vet "Rod" Scott: Ralph Cleland Scott, jr.

Page 12-13, 17 = Cattle of Capay Valley: Hereford and Angus

Page 14-16 = Local Doctors—Capay Valley had their own, once—for 100 years! Among others between 1870s and 1970s: Craig, McManus, Garcelon.

Page 18 = The Buckeye Tree

Page 19 = "Dave the Dove" Story – the Sound of Doves in the "mourning"

Page 20-21 = Sheriffs Monroe: "Sunny Jim's" son Forrest D. Monroe elected 1938

Page 22-23 = Meadowlarks

Page 24--Subscription Info; River Otters and Beaver making a comeback!

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PAGE IV

Volume 12 (Begins on Book Page 241)

- Page Cover-1 = Introduction by Author-Editor, Elizabeth Monroe
- Page 2 = Contents/Works Cited; RiverDogFarm and Good Humus
- Page 3-5 = Berryessa Area: History, Dam and Lake
- Page 6-8 = Those Salt Creek Clarks
- Page 7 = Coyotes: North American Song-dog
- Page 8-9 = Outlaws of our valley: The Glasscock Gang on Glasscock Knob
- Page 10 = The other Clarks: Edmund L. Clark clan marries into the Emily Clark clan; The Nurse family marries into Clarks--and soooo many other Valley families!
- Page 11 = Wine and Art Festival: Winters Plein Air Festival
- Page 12 = Memorials: Virginia Duncan-Newcom & Teresa Marco (Giraldi) Burris
- Page 13 -17 = Black-tail Deer, Tule Elk--and the long hunting tradition in our Valley
- Page 18 = Baseball in Capay: Cliff Garrison, Burnell Zentner, Coach Kanty, et al
- Page 19 = Tarweed and Turkey Mullein, or Doveweed—pungent smell of summer!
- Page 20-21 = Sheriffs Doings: Forrest D. Monroe; Japanese Internment and WWII
- Page 22-23 = Black Birds of Capay Valley, Jim Hiatt
- Page 24--Subscription Info; Elderberry and Stinging Nettle

Volume 13 (Begins on Book Page 265)

- Page Cover-1 = Introduction: Author-Editor, Elizabeth “Betsy” Monroe, Kayaker!
- Page 2 = Contents/Works Cited; Herons: Black-crowned Night-Heron and Big Blue
- Page 3 = Criner’s Arena; the Ralph Criner family in Lamb Valley
- Page 4-5 = Berryessa: Monticello Dam and Redbud
- Page 6-7 = Bank of Esparto and Esparto Enterprise Newspaper
- Page 8 = Japanese Internment; Bob Fletcher, an example of local heroes
- Page 9-11 = Harmon Jay Taber, I: a travel log of 1882
- Page 12-13 = Mourning Doves
- Page 14-15 = Doveweed, etc.
- Page 16 -17 = Sheriff Doings
- Pages 18-20 = Yolo Fliers Club and Fliers of Western Yolo
- Page 21 = 1960-70s Survey Map
- Page 22-23 = Ernie Lehman Remembers a Capay Childhood
- Page 24--Subscription Info; Black-tail Deer and Tule Elk photos

Volume 14 (Begins on Book Page 289)

- Page Cover-1 = Introduction by Elizabeth “Betsy” Monroe, writer-editor-publisher—Happy Holidays!
- Page 2 = Contents/Works Cited; Rumsey and Esparto Bridge comparisons
- Page 2-7 = The Bridges of Capay Valley
- Page 8-11 = Capay Develops before the Gold Rush; Cattle and grain become the new “gold”
- Page 12 = Yolo Land and Cattle Co.
- Page 13 = Rosy & George Wanshop
- Page 14-16 = Our Migratory Birds: Blue Birds color the skies!
- Page 17 = Saloons--music & a meeting place, so important in a small community!
- Page 18-19 = Ernie Lehman Remembers the Capay Saloons
- Page 20-21 = Capay Saloons: Lautze’s Capay Saloon, Louie’s Tavern; then Ike and Kay’s, and The Country Club; now Capay Junction and The Road Trip Bar and Grill
- Page 22-24 = Memorials: Micki Zentner; Bill Harris; Nancy Monroe Grasty
- Page 24--Subscription Info; Nancy Monroe RIP