

Code of Conduct – South Coast Pirates Rugby Club Players

1st October 2015

Purpose

These codes set out the standards of behaviour expected of all players. Being a registered member of the team each player must agree to adhere to these codes at all times.

Codes

Players must:

- Attend minimum training sessions of 2 times per week gym and 2 sessions per week field during pre-season and the season, or forward apologies to the Team Manager prior to training with reasons
- Treat all other players, Club officials, volunteers, drivers, hosts, match officials, supporters and any other entity associated with the Club with respect and courtesy
- Play for the good of the Club, not for individual interest or gain
- Be honest at all times
- Act as a positive role model to the wider community and with respect to good sporting behaviour
- Respect the equipment and resources of the Club and only use these in Club related activities
- Always represent the Club in a professional manner
- Not speak to the media, or use social media, in any way that could damage the Club, it's players/officials or its reputation
- Refrain from actions during play which may result in a red card – a disciplinary hearing will follow a red card with possible suspension from the Club
- Not to consume alcohol or smoke if underage, nor to assist younger players in these activities
- Not use illegal substances
- Will not consume alcohol on any occasion other than Saturday evening, this is restricted to beer only and applies to pre-season training and the playing season
- Arrive at the appointed time for every game as directed by the Coach. Any lateness will result in disciplinary action
- Be registered with South Coast Pirates and be covered by NHIF before being allowed to play
