October 1st begins October Reading Boo-HaHa which is another spooktacular reading program for everyone to enjoy. For kids reading picture books, read five books and draw a sucker from the pumpkin to see what prize you win. For our chapter book readers and adults, you can draw from the pumpkin to win a prize for every book you read. Choose wisely; you don't want to draw a zonk. This event starts October 1st and runs through October 31st.

October 1st, 7th & 8th Escape Room: The Witches National Convention was held in our room last night! We found out that they made plans to turn everyone who isn't a witch into a black cat or a bat. They locked the spell they need in the Breakout EDU box. The Spell was written in magic ink, and if it stays in the box for more than 45 minutes, it will be cast! If we can open the box before the 45 minutes are up, contact with air will break the spell. Work together to unlock the boxes and undo the magic of the Witches of Breakout!
