What joy we know, we sense, we feel, we receive, we emit on this glorious Easter morning. Celebrating Christ's victory over death and our certain knowledge of New Life through that victory gives us the courage to live fully our Baptismal calling.

Let us vigorously enter into a life of loving God with all our heart and all our soul and all our mind and all our being and loving our neighbour as yourself.

Throughout Holy Week we have cried tears like Peter for our betrayal of Jesus; we have helped carry the cross as Simon of Cyrene did; we have seen our Saviour crucified and laid in the tomb as the various Marys did. All these events, and many more lead us to a place so far beyond human comprehension, the Resurrection of Our Lord.

Let us, in this same way, grow with the early Church as a loving community, sharing our gifts and our love. Let us enter into this Easter reason actively confident in Christ's Ascension and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

May the grace of God be upon us as we journey forward in the love of God. I could not be happier to be your Pastor and I wish you the Happiest and Holiest of Easters. God bless all of you!

Who is My Neighbour: Exploring Fratelli Tutti Written as COVID-19 erupted, Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis' encyclical letter on the importance and necessity of a global social friendship, was released in October 2020. In this letter, which offers a hope of opening a "dialogue among all people of good will," for the building of a community that will sustain everyone, Francis invites us to "dream ... as a single human family, as fellow travelers sharing the same flesh, as children of the same earth which is our common home, each of us bringing the richness of his or her beliefs and convictions, each of us with his or her own voice, brothers and sisters all." Dr. Andrew Wilson, associate professor of religious studies at Mount Allison University, Sackville, will explore the richness of this document, during a session on Tuesday, April 20th beginning at 7:00 at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview. You are welcome to gather physically (all COVID-19 protocols will be respect) or virtually for those not comfortable to join us in person. Please register with Ellen by Monday, April 19th and indicate whether you will be joining us physically or virtually.

Join the Conversation The Office of Youth Faith Development is seeking young people aged 12-24 to join a series of virtual conversations (via Zoom) originally initiated by the CCCB and the Canadian Catholic Youth Ministry Network. These sessions are scheduled to take place on an ongoing basis beginning in May and will be an opportunity for young people across Atlantic Canada to gather and talk about issues important to them in 2021 and how we as a faith community can respond to them. All young people in this age range are welcome to join the conversation. For more information contact Trevor.

Mondays at the Movies Everyone is invited to join our film discussion series this Easter season designed to connect popular films to our faith. On April 19th, we will meet via Zoom at 10:00 am to discuss the film The Green Mile (1999), based on the novel by Stephen King. On May 3rd, we will meet via Zoom at 6:30 pm to discuss the film Signs (2002) starring Mel Gibson. For each session, participants will have watched the film ahead of time. Contact Karen for more information and to register at or ihtmccatechism@rogers.com or 387-4198. Mondays at the Movies is a collaborative effort between St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Pastoral Unit and the Archdiocese of Moncton Office of Youth Faith Development.

Exploring our Faith

O Happy Fault!

It was daunting when I realized my turn to write came on Easter Sunday. I read and studied all seven Readings from the Easter Vigil, the Exultat, the Baptismal Ceremony, the Epistles and Gospels. The "Exultat" sings in triumph, "O happy fault!" referring to the story in the Garden of Eden and the eating of the fruit of knowledge. The great Creation hymn that comprises the first reading (p. 349) is a prayerful reflection upon the knowledge given to Adam by Eve. I like to think that the Lord God was warning them of the dire consequences that would ensue when they began to shape their lives according to the brand new discovery they had made. (Gen 3:14-24). All new discoveries include the end of the old ways and the beginning of their own end because all knowledge is partial and destined to be surpassed.

I also believe that the story is based upon actual historical events that took place between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers some 5700 years ago. A new civilization began to grow there based on Inheritance from father to son. Records of possessions to be passed down were etched into clay as well as social and political rules. Government followed the family order of rule by the father over his wife and children. A well organized society developed with an economy of herding and farming, and dynasties recorded for more than two millennia. Then, for some reason, Abraham (called "a wandering Aramean" -Deut.26:5-9) spread the knowledge about Inheritance throughout the Middle East, changing many of the traditions he came upon. I interpret the second reading (p. 355) as an example of the new form of religion replacing an old one. The centuries long sojourn in Egypt also led to clashes between the religion of Abraham and the ancient religion of the Egyptians, leading to the Exodus. After the transformation of the cuneiform tablets into papyrus scrolls, they were easily transported in the Ark of the Covenant. Much later, the scattered writings and traditions of the scattered tribes of Israel were compiled into the Book of the Law there in Babylon, where the leaders of Israel were forced to stay together. Without the suffering of the Babylonian Exile we would not have a Bible.

After the long walk on the road to Emmaus when the disciples finally recognized Christ they asked, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He was...opening the Scriptures to us?" That question sends me to the seventh reading (p. 372): "I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you." St. Paul asks, "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into his death?" The prayer of Holy Mother Church during the baptismal ceremony includes these phrases: children of your promise, the grace of adoption, Abraham, father of nations. These phrases recall Paul's explanation that the promise to Abraham, not his rituals, was the foundation of the New Covenant. The waters of Baptism indicate a rebirth, imitating the water of the mother which breaks just before childbirth. At birth all children inherit gender, race, language, nationality, social status and the institutions that surround us. From birth we also participate in the hidden injustices of all social systems which can harden hearts to exclude "others" from benefits enjoyed by "Our Kind"

Baptism breaks the chain of inheritance. Through baptism we "die" to our inheritance and become children of God, equal to one another before God.
