

ADVISORY ON FILIPINO WORKERS AFFECTED BY FLIGHT DELAYS AND CANCELLATIONS DUE TO RECENT AIRLINE ACCIDENT AT NAIA

The Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver informs the Filipino community in British Columbia, Yukon and Northwest Territories that it is ready to assist Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) affected by flight delays and cancellations due to the recent airline incident at NAIA by issuing certifications to explain to their employers the delay in their return to Canada.

To obtain the certification, affected OFWs should present their airline ticket showing the original date of departure; the reissued ticket showing new date of departure; employment contract; and overseas employment certificate.

Any affected Filipinos requiring certifications or any other form of assistance are advised to contact the Consulate at 604-653-5858, or at email address vancouverpcg@telus.net, and/or the Philippine Overseas Labor Office at its hotline number 604-767-3354 and email address polo.vancouver@yahoo.ca.
