A Note from Rick: Tuesday was a steady market compared to the previous week, with the exception of Holstein steers. We had several nice groups and had a lot of cattle in the high 80's and low 90's. The springer sale was a big one and cattle sold well for the state of the current market. We had a big selection from top to bottom and I thought heifers sold good throughout. Unfortunately, dairy cattle prices are at rock bottom and this doesn't make for happy customers on the seller side. All we can do is make the most of what we've got and I think we definitely accomplished that on Thursday. We are looking forward to the Midwinter Horse Pull and Stallion Presentation this weekend and the Driving Horse Auction on the 24th. Draft Horse Catalog is at the printer and we are ready to go to work on the Spring Draft. Stay healthy and we'll see you at TLA!
