Sunday's Theme

In today's Gospel, we hear the familiar story of the Good Samaritan. By means of this parable, Jesus tells us that we need to be authentic faith-filled persons who know how to observe the spirit of our religion and not just the externals. In other words, one's religious sincerity and authenticity should translate into the way we act and respond to those who are in need. Like the Good Samaritan who "was moved with pity" and showed mercy to the man in need of help, we need to heed Jesus' command to "Go and do likewise". This is the real conversion needed if we are to call ourselves followers of Christ.

FESTIVAL OF FLIGHT

The 2022 Festival of Flight is right around the corner and the Town of Gander is looking at hosting the Annual Gospel Concert on Sunday, July 31st in the Town Square. They are asking if anyone in our church would like to perform as it would be really lovely to have representation from each church even if someone only sings one or two songs. A response would be appreciated by July 13th. They are also looking for people to help with the parking during that time. For more information, please contact Kelly Sceviour | Special Events Coordinator Town of Gander by phone at 651-5936, by fax at 256-4195 or by email at ksceviour@gandercanada.com

The 2021-2022 Living with Christ Sunday Missal is available at the Parish Office for $5.00 each. The Sunday Missal contains complete readings and Mass texts, as well as selected hymns for Sundays and feast days for the entire Church year.

ORDINARY TIME

Ordinary Time encompasses that part of the liturgical year that does not fall within the distinctive seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. The Catholic Church celebrates two periods of the year as Ordinary Time: the first following the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord and continuing until the Tuesday evening before Ash Wednesday; the second following Pentecost Sunday until the evening before Advent. There are about 33 or 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time, depending on the year. In actuality, however, there are fewer "Sundays in Ordinary Time" because major feasts honouring the Trinity, Corpus Christi, Christ the King, and others replace a particular Sunday in Ordinary Time. It is important to remember that Ordinary Time celebrates "the mystery of Christ in all its aspects". Pope Paul VI, in his Apostolic Letter approving the Roman calendar (February 14, 1969) says, "The reason for the restoration of the liturgical year is to help believers through their faith, hope and love to share more fully in the entire mystery of Christ as it is unfolding throughout the year." The Sundays in Ordinary Time are an important part of this unfolding mystery.

JULY 11 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT BENEDICT, ABBOT: Benedict decided on a life of solitude at a young age. He received the monastic habit and retired to a cave, where he lived alone in the tradition of the Desert Fathers. Soon he attracted followers and he built twelve small monasteries for those who wished to share his life. Later, he and a few companions founded the great monastery of Monte Cassino where Benedict spent the rest of his life and wrote his Rule which is still followed today by the Benedictines. The Rule emphasizes moderation, humility, obedience, prayer and manual labour as the way to holiness. Saint Benedict is considered the Father of Western monasticism and was proclaimed a patron of Europe in 1964 by Pope Paul VI.

July 13 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT HENRY: Known as Henry the Good, Henry II (972-1024) was renowned as a just and clement ruler, a man of prayer, and a humble ascetic. He was canonized in 1146 by Pope Eugene III and is a patron of Benedictine oblates, childless people, dukes, kings, and the physically challenged.

JULY 15 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT BONAVENTURE, BISHOP, DOCTOR: Born in Tuscany in 1221, Bonaventure joined the Friars Minor at age 20 and was sent to the University of Paris where he studied and then taught the philosophy and theology of the Franciscan school. In 1257 he was chosen minister general of the Franciscan Order, and in 1273 he was appointed a Cardinal by Pope Gregory X. He was known for his holiness, humility and virtue, and the dedication of his intellectual gifts to the service of the Church. His writings on Saint Francis, as well as on history, spirituality and medieval mystical doctrine, continue to inspire readers today. In 1482 he was canonized, and in 1588 he was declared a Doctor of the Church.

July 16 - Memorial of Our Lady of Mount Carmel: The Order of Carmel dates back to a group of Western hermits who in the 12th century settled on Mount Carmel, overlooking the plain of Galilee, in imitation of the prophet Elijah. They grouped themselves around a small chapel dedicated to Our Lady. In the 13th century, the Order of Carmel was formed, retaining the twin devotions of the early hermits: to Elijah and his solitary prayer, and to Our Lady under the title 'of Mount Carmel'. The Order of Carmel, also known as the Carmelites, have celebrated their patronal feast on this day since the 14th century.
