Today's Bible Question

The Proverbs are entitled, in 1:1, to the proverbs of

- a) David
- b) Ethan
- c) Isaiah
- d) Solomon

To the King Be Honor

“Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen” (1 Timothy 1:17).

EVERY PROPER RESPONSE TO GOD IS A RESPONSE TO HIS GREATNESS. Every right relationship to Him is based on respect for His majesty. So if we seek God, what we are really seeking is to know enough of His greatness to respond to it with honor. By our sin, we have dishonored God terribly. What we should be seeking now is to regain the ability to honor Him properly.

God is the source of all light. Our response to Him should be to open our minds to His truth. It was falsehood and delusion that moved us to break our relationship with God, and if our problem is to be solved, we must have the courage to return to reality. We honor God when we make an honest commitment to truth and when, based on that commitment, we seek to know Him truly.

But God is also the source of all life. Paul spoke of God as the God who “gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did” (Romans 4:17). The resurrection of His Son serves to “release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Hebrews 2:15). We honor God when we love Him for the life that He has made possible.

And finally, God is the source of all strength. He enables us to do His will and restores to us the privilege of participating in His work. As Paul wrote to the church in Philippi, “It is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure” (Philippians 2:13). In the very highest sense, our labor can be a “labor of love” (1 Thessalonians 1:3). And we honor God when we serve Him faithfully in the strength that He provides.

A simple way to sum up our proper response to God is to say that we must adopt both reverence and gratitude. If we fail to fear God or to show our thanks, we dishonor Him. God’s greatness as our King calls for us, as His subjects, to find our gladness in His glory. “Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in” (Psalm 24:7).

“O Thou, who are the Light of the minds that know Thee, and the Life of the souls that love Thee, and the Strength of the thoughts that seek Thee; help us so to know Thee that we may truly love Thee; so to love Thee that we may truly serve Thee, whose service is perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen” (Gelasian Sacramentary).

Today’s Bible Quiz Answer

d) Solomon

Prov 1:1-9

1. The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;
2. To know wisdom and instruction, to perceive the words of understanding;
3. To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;
4. To give prudence to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.
5. A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding will attain wise counsels;
6. To understand a proverb and an enigma; the words of the wise and their riddles.
7. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction.
8. My son, hear the instruction of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother:
9. For they will be a graceful ornament on your head, and chains about your neck.
