Scholarships Open to Students Regardless of Immigration Status.

(Last updated on June 2017)

We are continually expanding this list and featuring scholarships with approaching deadlines so be sure to return to this page periodically.

Approaching Deadlines

[Deadline: 11/01/17 OPEN NOW!!] Soros Scholarship Program for New Americans-The Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowship for New Americans provides up to $90,000 in support toward living expenses and tuition over two years. Students pursuing any graduate degree, discipline, or profession at any graduate school in the country may apply. Undergraduates on track to earn their undergraduate degree by June 2017 and first- or second-year graduate students are eligible to apply.
National Hispanic Health Professional Student Scholarship Program. This $2,000 to $5,000 scholarship opportunity is open to students who are committed to careers in health care and enrolled full-time in dental, medical, nursing, pharmacy, public health, and policy schools.

Various scholarship available. Some may require students to have a specific status such as DACA, AB 540, etc. Some scholarships may not even ask about immigration status or citizenship, so you may qualify for those scholarships if you are currently undocumented.

Large dollars Scholarships. When it comes to earning scholarships for college, some students have the “go big or go home” mentality and chase the big buck scholarship opportunities. Landing a huge scholarship may take more work - meaning more time spent on the application process and essays, needing strong recommendation letters and competing against a pool of highly-qualified students. If you're motivated to land a large dollar scholarship that can potentially pay for your entire college tuition, check out these generously-endowed scholarships.

ACTSIX Scholarships– This is a full-tuition and full-need scholarship open to undocumented students in the following regions: Tacoma-Seattle, Portland, Yakima Valley, Spokane, Indiana, Chicago and Minnesota.
