

Product Specifications
Nylon Conductive Knit ESD Gloves

Description

This type of glove has seamless knit construction. They are made of nylon yarn with conductive carbon fiber blended to effectively dissipate static charge through the wearer body to groundable point. The fingertips are Microknit™ for dexterity and comfort. They provide excellent ventilation properties through the back of the hand while have low moisture absorption. The gloves are washable and reusable.

This product is RoHS compliant and latex-free..

Specifications

Construction	Knitted Nylon/Carbon Fiber.
Colors	Grey
Washing	Mild detergent and warm water. Air or tumble dry with low heat.
Storage	Away from bright light and heat.
Sizes	Small: white cuff Medium: green cuff Large: brown cuff X-Large: yellow cuff XX-Large: Grey cup

Standard Package

- 12 pairs/pack; 10 packs per case (120 pairs per case/carton)