By Steven J. Malone / July 24, 2017

On July 17, 2017 at 3PM OG Boobie Black released his much anticipated CD of the year entitled Boobie Trapp 3 (BT3) featuring Young Dolph, and produced by one of the hottest young music producers in the game, Micah Gibbs better known on the streets as 6'4, 230lbs FETTY OFFICIAL out of Cleveland Ohio.

It's one of his hottest rap CD's to date. Better known for his association with hit rap sensation KEVIN GATES, one particular track stands out from all the rest. It's track No. 7 titled "GUAP" produced by FETTY OFFICIAL.

GUAP is a head bobbin' anthem with a repetitive, rhythmic beat that has crowds jumping from the east to the westcoast. It's easily one of the best collaborations on the CD and deserves to be placed in Boobie's Top 10 releases.

The collaboration of Fetty Official, Young Dolph and OG Boobie Black is club-style hit. With trill references to the late great Tupac and "shoebox bank accounts" the track keeps it 100 while riding one of the hottest beats of one of the fastest rising music producers in the game. We can't stop bobbin' our heads!!!

"Great
lyrics life."
