

Shut Down All Ports Of Entry

Update: September 14, 2014

Good Sunday Afternoon!

I wanted to make an announcement to put some rumors to rest.

My name is Stasyi Barth and I am the person organizing this event.

I am a 41-year-old disabled housewife, mother of 3 and a very proud American. I have no affiliations with any groups...no militia, no political party...nothing.

I have watched our Country disintegrate, slowly but surely, since Reagan left office. This disintegration has sped up under Obama, but it's been happening long before him.

Our military needs our help. Our veterans, our poor, working poor...our children...all deserve a better life than what they are receiving. It all comes back to the wise words of helping others, you must first make yourself whole so you are stable, then reach out and help everyone you can.

Our Country is not whole. We need to focus on our citizens, first and foremost. Yes, we are a nation of immigrants. But, welfare did not exist when our ancestors came through Ellis Island. Nothing was free; you worked for it. Everyone knows that you do not appreciate anything given to you for free.

We are a nation of laws. Those laws provide safety and freedom and the ability to live your life as you choose. It's not my place to tell you what you can and cannot do; you have free will. I just want to ensure we are in keeping with what our Founding Father's put in place for all of us. Nothing more, nothing less. Without our Constitution, we will fail. People in government owe favors to the people who got them there; favors that are stripping us of our inalienable rights.

The United States of America is a Constitutional Republic. That means that "We The People" run this great Country, not the politicians. But, they have forgotten their place and it's our Constitutional duty to remind them of their Oath to protect and defend the Constitution, not rewrite it or make illegal laws circumventing it to serve a particular voting block.

I love our military and our law enforcement! Anyone who puts their lives on the line to ensure my safety and freedom, deserves nothing less than for me to act in kind. Sgt. Tahmooressi has done his part. Now, it's time we help him. I will never sit by and let an honorable soldier be wrongfully persecuted without fighting for them. Ever.

Our World has become a very dangerous place. Because of the increasing threats, it is more important than ever, to protect our citizens. The best place to start, that I can think of, is our borders. Yes, there are a lot of problems with our Country and no, I'm not okay with any of it. However, if we can ensure our sovereignty, secure our borders and know who is here and what their intentions are, we will be in a much better place to tackle the other issues.

As for the safety and protection and possible negative outcomes for those attending, I am working on getting all of the facts to everyone, before you go. I will never lie to you or hide or sugarcoat anything. I want everyone to be aware of what you will or might face, before attending.

I have been in constant contact with Homeland Security, CBP, State Police, Highway Patrol, Border Patrol, Sheriff Departments, etc. They know we are coming and they know we are coming in peace. I will post everything I know, once I know it. Please, feel free to do your own research, make phone calls...ensure your peace of mind and know you know the facts.

I cannot be everywhere. I will personally be at San Ysidro, since I live in California and San Diego is my hometown.

I have been asked about financial donations and how people can help. Honestly, the only way you can help is to personally show up. There are times when simply donating money to a cause is beneficial, but this is not one of them. This is the time to make your presence known so our government is aware that people are willing to leave their sofas, their football games, picnics in the park, to take a stand. Take a stand to defend the freedom that so many people have fought for you to enjoy. Take a stand to ensure that very Freedom still exists for your grandchildren, just like your grandparents did for you.

If you cannot attend, for any reason, spread the word. Get people talking and help those who want to come, but cannot financially afford it. This is what it means to be a community. Let's stand together and help each other.

If anyone has any questions, please email me. It might take me awhile to respond, but I will respond.

Remember to check the website for information, as well. Our FaceBook page could be taken down. So, please make note of the website so you are still in touch and have the current information.

Take care, be safe, and let's join together to get our Country back!

May God Bless America and the citizens that stand in defense of her!

Sincerely,

Stasyi Barth

The Bill of Rights

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting and establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

The Declaration of Independence

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -
-That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.--Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government.
